Re: Armstrong Douglass PID

While at Aiken and Welch, I picked up the attached G.O. 129 Rogs and Social Security Records of George Elsa. Elsa was an insulator who worked primarily for AC and S, Plant, and Douglass. I spoke with Elsa for a few minutes on a break and he seemed like a nice man. However, he did have the appearance of a heavy smoker, still smokes, and is on oxygen. Nonetheless, it may be worth getting a copy of his depo at some point for PID purposes. His depo was scheduled for 10 days. Note also, Elsa's service list is attached - there doesn't seem to be any 'new' defendants listed.

15	vs.	)	PROPOUNDED BY DEFENDANTS
16	RAYBESTOS-MANHATTAN, INC., et al.,	)	(Personal Injury)
	Defendants.	)	Set 2

17 Comes now plaintiff GEORGE ELSA and responds to defendants' standard
18 interrogatories (personal injury), set 2, as follows. Please note that plaintiff has only just begun
19 discovery in this case and that discovery is continuing with respect to each interrogatory and
20 sub-interrogatory. In addition, plaintiff respectfully objects to each interrogatory and
21 sub-interrogatory insofar as it calls for privileged work product or privileged attorney-client
22 communication and insofar as it constitutes an invasion of privacy as guaranteed by Article I,
23 Section I of the California Constitution. Without waiving these objections, plaintiff responds as
24 follows:

25 Please also note, as to all of these interrogatories, plaintiff refers to subdivision (f)(2) of
26 CCP Section 2030 and specify that responsive information will be contained within George
27 Elsa's deposition beginning on April 10, 2001. Plaintiff notes that much of the information
28 responsive to these requests is contained within asbestos defendants' own business records,

1 through depositions taken of product identification witnesses through the course of asbestos
2 litigation and through the standard General Order 29 and 129 responses to interrogatories
3 provided by those defendants also involved in plaintiff's exposure as his employers or co and
4 sub-contractors at numerous of his worksites. Though plaintiff does not believe that such a
5 compilation is required, plaintiff has nonetheless undertaken the massive task of such a
6 compilation and have herein provided defendants with the benefit of the results thereof.
7 Defendants' reliance on plaintiff's voluntary compilation as a substitute for performing
8 independent investigation must be done at defendants' own risk as plaintiff cannot warrant that
9 all equally available information has been incorporated herein.

10 STANDARD INTERROGATORY, Set 2, No. 1: For each and every one of the known
11 jobsites at which decedent performed work of any kind, plaintiff refers to the following
12 responsive information as well as the more specific and detailed responsive information
13 contained in Exhibit A, attached hereto and fully incorporated herein by this reference:

14 Interrogatory 1, Subsections A (worksite) and B (address): For every worksite
15 identified in Exhibit A hereto, plaintiff has identified both the site name (at the time decedent 16 worked there) and the corresponding address with the most responsive information currently
17 available. Each site name and address has been described to the greatest and most accurate
18 extent possible. For those sites where an incomplete name and/or address is provided, or no
19 name or address is provided at all, plaintiff does not currently have sufficient information to 20 respond more fully to the interrogatory. Plaintiff reserves the right to supplement these
21 responses with such information and/or introduce, at trial, such information that is discovered
22 after the service of these responses.

23 Interrogatory 1, Subsection C (days worked): For each and every known jobsite at
24 which plaintiff performed work, plaintiff has attempted to identify, in Exhibit A, the exact days
25 he was present at such site, and, if unable, have provided the most responsive information
26 currently available. For those sites where incomplete time period and/or days of work is 27 provided, plaintiff does not currently have sufficient information to further respond more fully 28 to the interrogatory. Plaintiff is currently attempting to secure employment records and

1 corresponding information from his employers and identified co-workers and/or witnesses to
2 complete the responses to sub-section C. Plaintiff reserves the right to supplement these
3 responses with such information and/or introduce, at trial, such information that is discovered
4 after the service of these responses.

5 Interrogatory 1, Subsection D (employer): For each and every known jobsite
6 identified in Exhibit A, plaintiff has attempted to identify the employer for whom he was
7 performing work at such site. Plaintiff has provided the most responsive information currently
8 available regarding his employer at each site. Plaintiff also respectfully refers defendants to
9 plaintiff's social security records (pursuant to CCP Section 2030(f)(2)) that have previously
10 been or will be provided.

11 For those sites where incomplete employer information is provided, plaintiff does not
12 currently have sufficient information to further respond any more fully to the interrogatory.
13 Plaintiff continues to investigate employment records and identified co-workers and other
14 equally available sources to complete any missing information in responses to sub-section D.
15 Plaintiff reserves the right to supplement these responses with such information and/or 16 introduce, at trial, any information that is discovered after the service of these responses.

17 Interrogatory 1, Subsections E (job title) and F (work performed): Plaintiff has 18 attempted to provide the most comprehensive compilation of information relating these 19 inquiries to each worksite identified in Exhibit A where plaintiff worked. For those sites where 20 plaintiff's job title or description of work performed appears incomplete, plaintiff does not
21 currently have sufficient information to further respond any more fully to the interrogatory.
22 Plaintiff continues to search equally public records and other available sources, including
23 plaintiff's employment records, identified co-workers and witnesses, defendants' business
24 records, various contractors' records and defendants' responses to General Order and case
25 specific interrogatories to complete the responses to sub-sections E and F. Plaintiff reserves the 26 right to supplement these responses with such information and/or introduce, at trial, such 27 information that is discovered after the service of these responses.

28

1           Interrogatory 1, Subsection G (work with or around raw asbestos or asbestos-
2 containing materials at the jobsite): Unless specifically noted in Exhibit A, plaintiff believes
3 plaintiff was exposed, whether directly or indirectly, to asbestos at each of the identified
4 jobsites. Due to the fact that asbestos fibers, once released into the air, have a very slow
5 settling velocity, drift with the currents of air movement and are also easily re-entrained once
6 settled, plaintiff was exposed to asbestos at any site where asbestos was utilized and/or
7 disturbed in his vicinity.

8           Interrogatory 1, Subsection G, sub-subsections 1 (area worked) and 2 (days
9 suffering exposure): Plaintiff has attempted to identify the specific area within the worksite
10 where he worked with or around asbestos or asbestos-containing materials and the length of
11 time of each such exposure in Exhibit A, responses to Interrogatories No. 1.C. and 1.F.
12 Plaintiff has provided the most responsive information currently available regarding his work
13 areas and duration of exposure for each site. For those sites where plaintiff's work area or
14 duration of exposure appears incomplete, plaintiff does not currently have sufficient information
15 to respond any more fully to the interrogatory.

16           However, because of the propensity of asbestos fibers to float, drift and reentrain, and 17 since even invisible levels of asbestos concentrations in the air contributed substantially to 18 plaintiff's total aggregate dose of occupational exposure to asbestos, plaintiff was necessarily 19 exposed to respirable asbestos fibers generated by other workers or trades in his vicinity from 20 and from other sources of which he may not ever have been personally aware. Consequently 21 plaintiff believes he was exposed to asbestos on every day he was present at a worksite where
22 asbestos was being or had recently been manipulated in his general vicinity.

23           Interrogatory 1, Section G, sub-subsection 3 (control of work/directors): Plaintiff
24 responds that the general and sub-contractors for each of his worksites predominantly controlled
25 such site, or their work area within that site, and, either directly or indirectly, controlled the 26 placement, timing or manner of plaintiff's activities. The nature and scope of the direction is 27 covered by the general and sub contracts in the exclusive possession of the relevant named
28 defendants in this action.

1           Where more specific responsive information is known (i.e., names of contractors'
2 employees responsible for safety or direction of time, place or manner of work disturbing
3 asbestos), plaintiff has identified such contractors' employees and/or further responsive
4 information currently available regarding direction of plaintiff's work at each site in Exhibit A.
5 For those sites where incomplete responsive information is provided, or no such information is
6 provided, plaintiff does not currently have sufficient information to further respond more fully
7 to the interrogatory. Further, as most of the information regarding "control" issues is in the
8 exclusive possession the relevant named "premise" defendants, plaintiff continues to search
9 equally available public databases to complete the responses to sub-subsection 3. Information
10 responsive to this interrogatory section is also more specifically in the possession or control of 11 the relevant named defendants in this action and such information should be available through
12 defendants' responses to case specific interrogatories from plaintiff or through General Order
13 Interrogatory responses. Plaintiff reserves the right to supplement these responses with such 14 information and/or introduce, at trial, such information that is discovered after the service of 15 these responses.

16           Interrogatory 1, Subsection G, sub-subsections 4 (co-workers) and 5 (other
17 witnesses): Plaintiff has attempted to identify each and every co-worker of his or other
18 individual with knowledge of his exposure, for each identified site, in Exhibit A. For those
19 sites where incomplete co-worker and/or exposure witness information is provided, plaintiff
20 does not currently have sufficient information to further respond more fully to the 21 interrogatory. Plaintiff continues to search public databases (such as contracts, the internet and 22 phone listings) and other known co-workers to augment co-worker and witness information
23 responsive to sub-subsections 4 and 5. Much of this information is also in the possession or
24 control of plaintiff's employers and other defendants in this action. Plaintiff reserves the right
25 to supplement these responses with such information and/or introduce, at trial, such information
26 that is discovered after the service of these responses.

1           Interrogatory 1, Subsections G, sub-subsections 6 and 7 (contemporaneous and
2 prior contractors): Plaintiff has provided the most responsive, currently available information
3 on contractor identities in Exhibit A. Where incomplete contractor identification is provided,
4 or no contractor is identified at all, plaintiff does not currently have sufficient information to
5 respond more fully to the interrogatory. Plaintiff continues to search public databases such as
6 identified co-workers, construction contracts, building permits and defendants responses to
7 standard and case specific discovery to complete the responses to sub-subsections 6 and 7.
8 Plaintiff reserves the right to supplement these responses with such information and/or
9 introduce, at trial, such information that is discovered after the service of these responses.

10           Interrogatory 1, Subsections G, sub-subsections 8 and 9 (supporting documents):
11 Plaintiff has provided the most responsive, currently available information on relevant
12 supporting documents in their responses to Defendants Standard Requests For Production. Of 13 course, the majority of any documentation supportive of plaintiff's responses can be found or
14 identified through equally available sources such as defendants' business records, defendants'
15 responses to standard and case-specific discovery, building permits, construction contracts and
16 In Re Complex Litigation discovery. Plaintiff will not endeavor to compile a list of all of the 17 documents that are equally available. Other than this information, plaintiff does not currently
18 have sufficient information to further respond more fully to the interrogatory. Plaintiff
19 continues to search these and other equally available resources to discover information more
20 responsive to sub-subsections 8 and 9. Plaintiff reserves the right to supplement these
21 responses with such information and/or introduce, at trial, such information that is discovered
22 after the service of these responses.

23           Interrogatory 1, Subsections G, sub-subsection 10(a-e) (George Elsa's work with 24 asbestos): Plaintiff has provided the most responsive, currently available information on the 25 details regarding his work with asbestos or asbestos-containing materials in Exhibit A. Except
26 where otherwise stated in Exhibit A, plaintiff did not wear breathing protection against asbestos
27 inhalation. In fact, plaintiff was not aware of the possibility of danger from asbestos inhalation
28 until approximately the 1980s. Additional information may be found or identified through

1 equally available sources such as defendants' business records, defendants' responses to
2 standard and case-specific discovery, building permits, construction contracts and discovery
3 propounded in specific cases and In Re Complex Litigation regarding the work practices of
4 plaintiff's employers. Other than this information, plaintiff does not currently have sufficient
5 information to further respond more fully to this part of the interrogatory. Plaintiff continues
6 to search these equally available resources and public databases such as identified co-workers,
7 construction contracts, building permits and defendants responses to standard and case specific
8 discovery to complete the responses to sub-subsections 10. Plaintiff reserves the right to 9 supplement these responses with such information and/or introduce, at trial, such information
10 that is discovered after the service of these responses.

11 Interrogatory 1, Subsections G, sub-subsection 11(a-h) (others' work with 12 asbestos): Plaintiff has provided the most responsive, currently available information on the 13 details regarding other entities' or individuals' work with asbestos or asbestos-containing
14 materials, in the vicinity of plaintiff, in Exhibit A. Except where otherwise stated in Exhibit A,
15 plaintiff did not wear breathing protection against asbestos generation caused by these other
16 entities or individuals. Moreover, unless specifically indicated to the contrary in Exhibit A,
17 plaintiff is unaware of any general contractor, sub-contractor or any of their agents or
18 representatives having taken any safety precautions to protect him from exposure to asbestos.
19 Additional information may be found or identified through equally available sources such as
20 defendants' business records, defendants' responses to standard and case-specific discovery,
21 building permits, construction contracts and In Re Complex Litigation discovery. Other than
22 this information, plaintiff does not currently have sufficient information to further respond more
23 fully to this part of the interrogatory. Plaintiff continues to search these equally available
24 resources and public databases such as identified co-workers, construction contracts, building
25 permits and defendants responses to standard and case specific discovery to complete the 26 responses to sub-subsections 11. Plaintiff reserves the right to supplement these responses with 27 such information and/or introduce, at trial, such information that is discovered after the service
28 of these responses.

1 STANDARD INTERROGATORY, Set 2, No. 2:

2 For any individual identified in response to Interrogatory 1, plaintiff is currently
3 unaware of any of them having had their deposition taken. If any such individuals have been
4 deposed, plaintiff does not currently have any information to further respond to this part of the
5 interrogatory. Plaintiff continues to investigate this matter through all sources previously
6 identified herein. Plaintiff reserves the right to supplement these responses with newly 7 discovered information and/or introduce, at trial, such information that is discovered after the 8 service of these responses.

9 STANDARD INTERROGATORY, Set 2, No. 3:

10 Responsive information to this interrogatory is cumulative of information that already
11 has been or will shortly be provided by plaintiff in response to Defendants' Standard Request
12 For Production to Plaintiff. Plaintiff is currently unaware of any other relevant, non-privileged 13 documents responsive to this request that have not already been provided to defendants or that 14 are not equally available to defendant's through their own investigation.

17
18 Comes now plaintiff GEORGE ELSA and responds to defendants' standard
19 interrogatories (personal injury), set 2, as follows. Please note that plaintiff has only just begun
20 discovery in this case and that discovery is continuing with respect to each interrogatory and
21 sub-interrogatory. In addition, plaintiff respectfully objects to each interrogatory and
22 sub-interrogatory insofar as it calls for privileged work product or privileged attorney-client
23 communication and insofar as it constitutes an invasion of privacy as guaranteed by Article I,
24 Section I of the California Constitution. Without waiving these objections, plaintiff responds as
25 follows:

26 Please also note, as to all of these interrogatories, plaintiff refers to subdivision (f)(2) of
27 CCP Section 2030 and specify that responsive information will be contained within George
28 Elsa's deposition beginning on April 10, 2001. Plaintiff notes that much of the information responsive to these requests is contained within asbestos defendants' own business records,

1 through depositions taken of product identification witnesses through the course of asbestos
2 litigation and through the standard General Order 29 and 129 responses to interrogatories
3 provided by those defendants also involved in plaintiff's exposure as his employers or co and
4 sub-contractors at numerous of his worksites. Though plaintiff does not believe that such a
5 compilation is required, plaintiff has nonetheless undertaken the massive task of such a
6 compilation and have herein provided defendants with the benefit of the results thereof.
7 Defendants' reliance on plaintiff's voluntary compilation as a substitute for performing
8 independent investigation must be done at defendants' own risk as plaintiff cannot warrant that
9 all equally available information has been incorporated herein.

10 STANDARD INTERROGATORY, Set 2, No. 1: For each and every one of the known
11 jobsites at which decedent performed work of any kind, plaintiff refers to the following
12 responsive information as well as the more specific and detailed responsive information
13 contained in Exhibit A, attached hereto and fully incorporated herein by this reference:

14 Interrogatory 1, Subsections A (worksite) and B (address): For every worksite
15 identified in Exhibit A hereto, plaintiff has identified both the site name (at the time decedent 16 worked there) and the corresponding address with the most responsive information currently
17 available. Each site name and address has been described to the greatest and most-accurate
18 extent possible. For those sites where an incomplete name and/or address is provided, or no
19 name or address is provided at all, plaintiff does not currently have sufficient information to
20 respond more fully to the interrogatory. Plaintiff reserves the right to supplement these
21 responses with such information and/or introduce, at trial, such information that is discovered
22 after the service of these responses.

23 Interrogatory 1, Subsection C (days worked): For each and every known jobsite at
24 which plaintiff performed work, plaintiff has attempted to identify, in Exhibit A, the exact days
25 he was present at such site, and, if unable, have provided the most responsive information
26 currently available. For those sites where incomplete time period and/or days of work is
27 provided, plaintiff does not currently have sufficient information to further respond more fully
28 to the interrogatory. Plaintiff is currently attempting to secure employment records and

1 corresponding information from his employers and identified co-workers and/or witnesses to
2 complete the responses to sub-section C. Plaintiff reserves the right to supplement these
3 responses with such information and/or introduce, at trial, such information that is discovered
4 after the service of these responses.

5 Interrogatory 1, Subsection D (employer): For each and every known jobsite
6 identified in Exhibit A, plaintiff has attempted to identify the employer for whom he was
7 performing work at such site. Plaintiff has provided the most responsive information currently
8 available regarding his employer at each site. Plaintiff also respectfully refers defendants to
9 plaintiff's social security records (pursuant to CCP Section 2030(f)(2)) that have previously
10 been or will be provided.

11 For those sites where incomplete employer information is provided, plaintiff does not
12 currently have sufficient information to further respond any more fully to the interrogatory.
13 Plaintiff continues to investigate employment records and identified co-workers and other
14 equally available sources to complete any missing information in responses to sub-section D.
15 Plaintiff reserves the right to supplement these responses with such information and/or 16 introduce, at trial, any information that is discovered after the service of these responses.

17 Interrogatory 1, Subsections E (job title) and F (work performed): Plaintiff has
18 attempted to provide the most comprehensive compilation of information relating these 19 inquiries to each worksite identified in Exhibit A where plaintiff worked. For those sites where
20 plaintiff's job title or description of work performed appears incomplete, plaintiff does not
21 currently have sufficient information to further respond any more fully to the interrogatory.
22 Plaintiff continues to search equally public records and other available sources, including
23 plaintiff's employment records, identified co-workers and witnesses, defendants' business
24 records, various contractors' records and defendants' responses to General Order and case
25 specific interrogatories to complete the responses to sub-sections E and F. Plaintiff reserves the 26 right to supplement these responses with such information and/or introduce, at trial, such 27 information that is discovered after the service of these responses.

28

1            Interrogatory 1, Subsection G (work with or around raw asbestos or asbestos-
2 containing materials at the jobsite): Unless specifically noted in Exhibit A, plaintiff believes
3 plaintiff was exposed, whether directly or indirectly, to asbestos at each of the identified
4 jobsites. Due to the fact that asbestos fibers, once released into the air, have a very slow
5 settling velocity, drift with the currents of air movement and are also easily re-entrained once
6 settled, plaintiff was exposed to asbestos at any site where asbestos was utilized and/or
7 disturbed in his vicinity.

8            Interrogatory 1, Subsection G, sub-subsections 1 (area worked) and 2 (days
9 suffering exposure): Plaintiff has attempted to identify the specific area within the worksite
10 where he worked with or around asbestos or asbestos-containing materials and the length of
11 time of each such exposure in Exhibit A, responses to Interrogatories No. 1.C. and 1.F.
12 Plaintiff has provided the most responsive information currently available regarding his work
13 areas and duration of exposure for each site. For those sites where plaintiff's work area or
14 duration of exposure appears incomplete, plaintiff does not currently have sufficient information
15 to respond any more fully to the interrogatory.

16            However, because of the propensity of asbestos fibers to float, drift and reentrain, and
17 since even invisible levels of asbestos concentrations in the air contributed substantially to
18 plaintiff's total aggregate dose of occupational exposure to asbestos, plaintiff was necessarily
19 exposed to respirable asbestos fibers generated by other workers or trades in his vicinity from 20 and from other sources of which he may not ever have been personally aware. Consequently 21 plaintiff believes he was exposed to asbestos on every day he was present at a worksite where
22 asbestos was being or had recently been manipulated in his general vicinity.

23            Interrogatory 1, Section G, sub-subsection 3 (control of work/directors): Plaintiff
24 responds that the general and sub-contractors for each of his worksites predominantly controlled
25 such site, or their work area within that site, and, either directly or indirectly, controlled the 26 placement, timing or manner of plaintiff's activities. The nature and scope of the direction is 27 covered by the general and sub contracts in the exclusive possession of the relevant named
28 defendants in this action.

1           Where more specific responsive information is known (i.e., names of contractors'
2 employees responsible for safety or direction of time, place or manner of work disturbing
3 asbestos), plaintiff has identified such contractors' employees and/or further responsive
4 information currently available regarding direction of plaintiff's work at each site in Exhibit A.
5 For those sites where incomplete responsive information is provided, or no such information is
6 provided, plaintiff does not currently have sufficient information to further respond more fully
7 to the interrogatory. Further, as most of the information regarding "control" issues is in the
8 exclusive possession the relevant named "premise" defendants, plaintiff continues to search
9 equally available public databases to complete the responses to sub-subsection 3. Information
10 responsive to this interrogatory section is also more specifically in the possession or control of
11 the relevant named defendants in this action and such information should be available through
12 defendants' responses to case specific interrogatories from plaintiff or through General Order
13 Interrogatory responses. Plaintiff reserves the right to supplement these responses with such 14 information and/or introduce, at trial, such information that is discovered after the service of 15 these responses.

16           Interrogatory 1, Subsection G, sub-subsections 4 (co-workers) and 5 (other
17 witnesses): Plaintiff has attempted to identify each and every co-worker of his or other
18 individual with knowledge of his exposure, for each identified site, in Exhibit A. For those
19 sites where incomplete co-worker and/or exposure witness information is provided, plaintiff
20 does not currently have sufficient information to further respond more fully to the 21 interrogatory. Plaintiff continues to search public databases (such as contracts, the internet and 22 phone listings) and other known co-workers to augment co-worker and witness information
23 responsive to sub-subsections 4 and 5. Much of this information is also in the possession or
24 control of plaintiff's employers and other defendants in this action. Plaintiff reserves the right
25 to supplement these responses with such information and/or introduce, at trial, such information
26 that is discovered after the service of these responses.

1           Interrogatory 1, Subsections G, sub-subsections 6 and 7 (contemporaneous and
2 prior contractors): Plaintiff has provided the most responsive, currently available information
3 on contractor identities in Exhibit A. Where incomplete contractor identification is provided,
4 or no contractor is identified at all, plaintiff does not currently have sufficient information to
5 respond more fully to the interrogatory. Plaintiff continues to search public databases such as
6 identified co-workers, construction contracts, building permits and defendants responses to
7 standard and case specific discovery to complete the responses to sub-subsections 6 and 7.
8 Plaintiff reserves the right to supplement these responses with such information and/or
9 introduce, at trial, such information that is discovered after the service of these responses.

10           Interrogatory 1, Subsections G, sub-subsections 8 and 9 (supporting documents):
11 Plaintiff has provided the most responsive, currently available information on relevant
12 supporting documents in their responses to Defendants Standard Requests For Production. Of 13 course, the majority of any documentation supportive of plaintiff's responses can be found or
14 identified through equally available sources such as defendants' business records, defendants'
15 responses to standard and case-specific discovery, building permits, construction contracts and
16 In Re Complex Litigation discovery. Plaintiff will not endeavor to compile a list of all of the 17 documents that are equally available. Other than this information, plaintiff does not currently
18 have sufficient information to further respond more fully to the interrogatory. Plaintiff
19 continues to search these and other equally available resources to discover information more
20 responsive to sub-subsections 8 and 9. Plaintiff reserves the right to supplement these
21 responses with such information and/or introduce, at trial, such information that is discovered
22 after the service of these responses.

23           Interrogatory 1, Subsections G, sub-subsection 10(a-e) (George Elsa's work with 24 asbestos): Plaintiff has provided the most responsive, currently available information on the
25 details regarding his work with asbestos or asbestos-containing materials in Exhibit A. Except
26 where otherwise stated in Exhibit A, plaintiff did not wear breathing protection against asbestos
27 inhalation. In fact, plaintiff was not aware of the possibility of danger from asbestos inhalation
28 until approximately the 1980s. Additional information may be found or identified through

1 equally available sources such as defendants' business records, defendants' responses to
2 standard and case-specific discovery, building permits, construction contracts and discovery
3 propounded in specific cases and In Re Complex Litigation regarding the work practices of
4 plaintiff's employers. Other than this information, plaintiff does not currently have sufficient
5 information to further respond more fully to this part of the interrogatory. Plaintiff continues
6 to search these equally available resources and public databases such as identified co-workers,
7 construction contracts, building permits and defendants responses to standard and case specific
8 discovery to complete the responses to sub-subsections 10. Plaintiff reserves the right to
9 supplement these responses with such information and/or introduce, at trial, such information
10 that is discovered after the service of these responses.

11 Interrogatory 1, Subsections G, sub-subsection 11(a-h) (others' work with 12 asbestos): Plaintiff has provided the most responsive, currently available information on the 13 details regarding other entities' or individuals' work with asbestos or asbestos-containing
14 materials, in the vicinity of plaintiff, in Exhibit A. Except where otherwise stated in Exhibit A,
15 plaintiff did not wear breathing protection against asbestos generation caused by these other
16 entities or individuals. Moreover, unless specifically indicated to the contrary in Exhibit A,
17 plaintiff is unaware of any general contractor, sub-contractor or any of their agents or
18 representatives having taken any safety precautions to protect him from exposure to asbestos.
19 Additional information may be found or identified through equally available sources such as
20 defendants' business records, defendants' responses to standard and case-specific discovery,
21 building permits, construction contracts and In Re Complex Litigation discovery. Other than
22 this information, plaintiff does not currently have sufficient information to further respond more
23 fully to this part of the interrogatory. Plaintiff continues to search these equally available
24 resources and public databases such as identified co-workers, construction contracts, building
25 permits and defendants responses to standard and case specific discovery to complete the 26 responses to sub-subsections 11. Plaintiff reserves the right to supplement these responses with 27 such information and/or introduce, at trial, such information that is discovered after the service
28 of these responses.

1 STANDARD INTERROGATORY, Set 2, No. 2:

2 For any individual identified in response to Interrogatory 1, plaintiff is currently
3 unaware of any of them having had their deposition taken. If any such individuals have been
4 deposed, plaintiff does not currently have any information to further respond to this part of the
5 interrogatory. Plaintiff continues to investigate this matter through all sources previously
6 identified herein. Plaintiff reserves the right to supplement these responses with newly
7 discovered information and/or introduce, at trial, such information that is discovered after the 8 service of these responses.

9 STANDARD INTERROGATORY, Set 2, No. 3:

10 Responsive information to this interrogatory is cumulative of information that already
11 has been or will shortly be provided by plaintiff in response to Defendants' Standard Request
12 For Production to Plaintiff. Plaintiff is currently unaware of any other relevant, non-privileged 13 documents responsive to this request that have not already been provided to defendants or that
14 are not equally available to defendant's through their own investigation.

(A) Correspondence. Attorneys shall not communicate in writing with the Court concerning any pending case except by motion or memorandum, unless otherwise directed by the Court. Attorneys shall not furnish the Court copies of correspondence among themselves except as exhibits to a motion or memorandum.

(B) Ex Parte Oral Communications. Ex parte oral communications with the Court on substantive matters in a pending case are prohibited except when permitted by the Federal Rules of Civil, Criminal, or Bankruptcy Procedure.

V. DIFFERENTIATED CASE MANAGEMENT

Rule 5.01. Case Management Tracks

Differentiated Case Management (DCM) is a system for managing civil cases based on their relative complexity and the need for judicial involvement. All civil cases filed on or after January 1, 1995 will be assigned to one of the following five tracks:

Track 1-Expedited. Track 1 cases are expected to be concluded within 12 months of filing, with minimal judicial involvement. Motion and discovery deadlines are established by a standardized Case Management Order.

Track 2-Standard. Track 2 cases are expected to be concluded within 18 months of filing. Motion and discovery schedules are established by a Case Management Order issued after a Rule 16 Scheduling Conference.

Track 3-Complex. Track 3 cases are expected to be concluded within 24 months of filing. Motion and discovery schedules are established by a Case

Rule 11.01

MISSOURI (ED)

to exercise all powers and perform all duties conferred expressly or by implication upon magistrate judges by and in accordance with procedures now or hereafter set forth in the United States Code, rules promulgated by the Supreme Court, the local rules of this Court, and the orders of this Court. Subject to the foregoing, magistrate judges are authorized to set and to conduct hearings or trials on any matter assigned or referred to them, notify and require parties, attorneys, and witnesses to appear, require proofs, briefs, and argument, and to make such further orders as may be incidental or necessary to the completion of their duties.

XII. ATTORNEYS

Rule 12.01. Attorney Admission

(A) Roll of Attorneys. The bar of this Court consists of those attorneys who have been granted admission upon satisfaction of the requirements for admission to practice before this Court prescribed by the rules in force at the time of their application for admission. Only attorneys enrolled pursuant to the rules of this Court or duly admitted pro hac vice may file pleadings, appear or practice in this Court, provided, however, that nothing in these rules is intended to prohibit any individual from appearing personally on his or her own behalf. An attorney admitted to practice in another federal district court or licensed by any state to practice law may appear and represent the United States or the State of Missouri, or any of their respective departments or agencies, without general admission to the bar of this Court. Admission to the bar of this Court is not required in order to file or appear in a miscellaneous case.

(B) Qualifications for Admission. An attorney of good moral character who holds a license to practice law from, and who is a member in good standing of the bar of, the highest court of any state or the District of Columbia may apply for admission to the bar of this Court.

(C) Procedure for Admission. A candidate for admission to the bar shall complete in writing and file a verified application for admission on a form provided by the Clerk of the Court. The application shall be accompanied by a current certificate of good standing from each state and each federal court in which the applicant is admitted to practice. Certificates of two members of the bar of this Court shall be filed by persons who know the applicant and can attest to his or her good moral character:

Each completed application shall be examined by the Clerk of Court for satisfactory evidence of compliance with these rules. If the candidate for admission has fully complied, the application shall be presented to a judge of the Court who shall rule on its sufficiency.

Upon approval of an application for admission, the attorney shall take an oath or affirmation administered by a district, magistrate or bankruptcy judge of this Court, sign the role of attorneys and pay the prescribed admission fee.

Admission to the bar of any division shall constitute admission to practice in all divisions of the Court, including the Bankruptcy Court.

(D) Renewal of Membership. The roll of attorneys admitted to practice before this Court shall be renewed biennially. A renewal registration on a form provided by the Court shall be filed with the Clerk by every member of the bar on or before the thirty-first day of January of each odd numbered year. Each renewal registration shall be accompanied by a fee in an amount not to exceed $20.00, as set by order of the Court at least ninety days prior to each registration period. The Clerk shall publish notice or otherwise inform the bar of the renewal requirement and the fee at least sixty days before the deadline for filing such renewal registration forms.

The Clerk shall deposit the renewal registration fees collected pursuant to this rule into the fund created by Local Rule 12.03, to be used for the purposes specified in that rule, and to defray the expenses of maintaining a current register of members of the bar of this Court.

An attorney who fails to file the required renewal registration and pay the renewal fee shall be provisionally removed from the roll of members in good standing, and the attorney's privilege to file pleadings, appear and practice in any division of the Eastern District of Missouri shall be suspended. If no renewal registration is filed within one year of the delinquency, the name of the attorney shall be permanently removed from the roll by order of the Court, without prejudice to a subsequent application for admission.

(E) Admission Pro Hac Vice. An attorney who is not regularly admitted to the bar of this Court, but who is a member in good standing of the bar of the highest court of any state or the District of Columbia, may be admitted pro hac vice for the limited purpose of appearing in a specific pending action. Unless allowed by a judge for good cause, an attorney may not be granted admission pro hac vice if the applicant resides in the Eastern District of Missouri, is regularly employed in the Eastern District of Missouri, or is regularly engaged in the practice of law in the Eastern District of Missouri.

A motion requesting admission pro hac vice shall be verified and shall include the name of the movant attorney, the address and telephone number of the movant, the name of the firm under which the movant practices; the name of the law school attended and the date of graduation, the movant's dates and places of admission to practice law, and a statement that the movant is in good standing in all bars in which he or she is a member. The motion shall be filed with the Clerk of the District Court or with the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court as appropriate, where the action is pending, upon payment of the prescribed fee.

(F) Duty to Report Change of Address. Attorneys admitted to practice under this rule have a continuing duty to promptly notify the Clerk of any change of business address and telephone number.

(G) Registration Number. Each attorney granted regular admission to the bar of this Court shall be issued a registration number which shall be included with the attorney's signature block on every filing in this Court.

(H) Court Appointed Representation. Attorneys who are members in good referred to herein as "support staff"), or staff attorneys of the parties herein who are directly assisting counsel for the parties in the preparation of this action.

2. All extracts and summaries of documents, answers to interrogatories, responses to requests for admissions and testimony designated as confidential as well as briefs or other pleadings quoting or referring to such confidential information shall also be treated as confidential in accordance with the provisions of this Order. Any interrogatories, or responses thereto, requests for admissions, or responses thereto, or other court filings containing information designated as confidential shall be filed with the Court in a sealed envelope with a notation on the front of the envelope as follows: "Confidential--Court Secrecy Order. This document is filed under seal pursuant to Order of this Court entered in this action and shall not be opened except by the Court, or upon Order of the Court, or by stipulation of the parties."

3. Each member of the support staffs of counsel to whom such confidential documents, answers to interrogatories, responses to requests for admissions, deposition testimony, extracts, summaries, briefs or pleadings will be furnished, shown or disclosed shall be provided with a copy of this Order and shall be bound by the terms hereof.

4. Documents, answers to interrogatories, responses to requests for admissions, extracts, and summaries thereof, briefs and pleadings which the parties wish to designate as confidential shall be so designated by means of a stamp bearing the legend: "CONFIDENTIAL." on the first page of the document.

5. Nothing contained in this Order shall affect the right of any party or other persons to make any objection, claim or other response to any request for production of documents, interrogatory, request for admissions or question at a deposition permitted by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Nothing in this Order shall constitute a ruling upon any claim by any party or other persons.

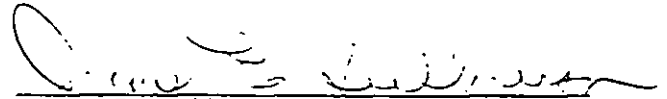

6. Nothing contained in this Order shall prevent the use of documents, interrogatory answers, responses to requests for admissions, testimony or information designated "Confidential" at a hearing or at trial or in depositions, on the condition that any such materials or information shall be disclosed or displayed only upon the implementation of all reasonable safeguards to preserve their confidentiality. If such documents, interrogatory answers, responses to requests for admissions, testimony or information are used at a hearing or at trial or in depositions, such documents, interrogatory answers, responses to requests for admissions, testimony or information and all portions of the transcripts and exhibits thereto which refer or relate to such documents, interrogatory answers, responses to requests for admissions, testimony or information, shall be treated as confidential pursuant to the provisions of this Order.

7. Upon final termination of this action, all documents, interrogatory answers, responses to requests for admissions and testimony or portions thereof treated as confidential pursuant to this Order (including all copies thereof and all portions of all documents which indicate or reflect the contents or existence of any documents, interrogatory answers, responses to requests for admissions, or information treated as confidential pursuant to this Order, including, but not limited to, data compilations, summaries, indexes and abstracts) shall be returned to counsel for the producing party or other persons.

8. The fact that documents, interrogatory answers, responses to requests for admissions, testimony, summaries or abstracts thereof are designated as confidential under this Order shall not be deemed to be determinative of what a trier of fact may determine to be confidential or proprietary. Absent a stipulation of the parties, the fact of such designation shall not be admissible during a hearing or the trial of this action.

9. The Court, upon a showing of good cause, may order the removal of the confidential designation from any document, interrogatory answer, request for admission, summary or abstract thereof or portion of testimony or otherwise amend this Order.

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that non-parties MACK CLEMONS and CLINTON MOORE shall move the above-captioned Court for an Order granting relief from the protective order dated March 11, 1980 entered in this matter. Such Motion shall be made on the grounds that good cause exists for relief from the Protective Order, to wit: certain transcripts of testimony subject to the Protective Order constitute admissible hearsay as against defendant ACandS, Inc. in the California matters presently proceeding at trial against it; none of the parties to the Protective Order would be unduly prejudiced by the relief requested by this Motion; judicial economy will be

1 served by the relief requested by this Motion; and no trade
2 secrets, proprietary information or other information regarding
3 which any party has a legitimate interest in protecting from 4 disclosure would be compromised by the relief requested by this
5 Motion.

6 PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE that the non-party movants hereby
7 request that, should the Court in its discretion order an oral
8 hearing on this matter, that the hearing be held by telephone
9 conference for the appearance of counsel for non-parties MACK
10 CLEMONS and CLINTON MOORE. Non-parties MACK CLEMONS and CLINTON
11 MOORE further request a prompt hearing date that will accommodate 12 their pending trials against defendant ACandS, Inc., scheduled to
13 commence January 6, 1997 in Department 20 of the San Francisco
14 Superior Court of California.

21 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES IN SUPPORT OF MOTION

22 The record had herein and the Affidavit of Thomas A. Paoli,
23 Esq. filed and served herewith establish the following relevant
24 facts:

25 (1) Non-party movants, MACK CLEMONS and CLINTON MOORE, are
26 plaintiffs in asbestos-related personal injury actions presently
27 pending in the Superior Court of California, San Francisco Superior
28 Court Case Nos. 969011 and 969325, respectively. Trial of those

1 matters is presently "trailing" in Department 20 of that court and
2 is anticipated to begin January 6, 1997. ACandS, Inc. is a party
3 to those actions.

4 (2) As against defendant ACandS, Inc., non-party movants wish
5 to offer into evidence at their California trials certain portions
6 of the following depositions taken in the above-captioned matter,
7 Bonds v. Atlas Asbestos Company, to which ACandS, Inc. was a party:
8 F.L. Gardner dated February 20, 1981; James W. Liddell dated
9 January 13 and February 18, 1981; Charles Q. Livingston dated
10 January 13 and February 18, 1981; John Zeller dated January 14 and 11 February 17, 1981; and John S. Taylor dated May 11, 1981. Such
12 transcripts appear to be subject to the stipulated Protective Order
13 of this Court dated March 11, 1980, a copy of which is attached to 14 the Affidavit of Dean A. Hanley filed and served herewith.

15 (3) The subject matter of the depositions at issue regards
16 what and when defendant ACandS, Inc. knew about health hazards
17 associated with exposure to asbestos. The subject matter of the 18 depositions is identical to issues being-raised at the trials of 19 the non-party movants. None of the subject matter of the 20 depositions relates to trade secrets or proprietary information of 21 ACandS, Inc.

22 (4) But for the effect of the March 11, 1980 Protective Order
23 of this Court, the deposition transcripts at issue are admissible
24 at the California trials of non-party movants to demonstrate the 25 state of ACandS, Inc.'s knowledge regarding the health hazards
26 associated with asbestos.

27 Upon the above facts, movants request that this Court grant
28 relief from its March 11, 1980 Protective Order in order to allow

1 movants to use the transcripts at their California trials. ACandS,
2 Inc. has no legitimate grounds for urging judicial protection of
3 the sworn testimony of its principals, which may rightfully be used
4 against it in a California court. Such statements constitute
5 admissions of ACandS, Inc. principals made under circumstances
6 where ACandS, Inc. was fully able to defend its rights. Allowing
7 use of such prior testimony serves judicial economy and spares the
8 witnesses repeated sessions giving substantially similar testimony.
9 ACandS, Inc. would suffer no undue prejudice by relief from the 10 Protective Order to use these transcripts in the trial of movants'
11 cases.

12 CONCLUSION.

13 For the foregoing reasons, non-party movants respectfully
14 request that this Court order that the March 11, 1980, Protective
15 Order be lifted for the purposes of movants using the itemized
16 deposition transcripts at their California trials.

AFFIDAVIT OF THOMAS A. PAOLI, ESQ.

24

I, THOMAS A. PAOLI, swear and declare as follows:

25

27

28

1. I am an attorney at law duly admitted to practice law before all the courts of the state of California and for purposes of this Motion am of counsel to the Law Offices of Jack K. Clapper,

1 attorneys of record for non-party movants, MACK CLEMONS and CLINTON
2 MOORE.

3 2. Non-party movants, MACK CLEMONS and CLINTON MOORE, are
4 plaintiffs in asbestos-related personal injury actions presently
5 pending in the Superior Court of California, San Francisco Superior
6 Court Case Nos. 969011 and 969325, respectively. Trial of those
7 matters is presently "trailing" in Department 20 of that court and
8 is anticipated to begin January 6, 1997. ACandS, Inc. is a party
9 to those actions.

10 3. As against defendant ACandS, Inc., non-party movants wish
11 to offer into evidence at their California trials certain portions
12 of the following depositions taken in the above-captioned matter,
13 Bonds v. Atlas Asbestos Company, to which ACandS, Inc. was a party:
14 F.L. Gardner dated February 20, 1981; James W. Liddell dated
15 January 13 and February 18, 1981; Charles Q. Livingston dated
16 January 13 and February 18, 1981; John Zeller dated January 14 and
17 February 17, 1981; and John S. Taylor dated May 11, 1981. Such
18 transcripts appear to be subject to the stipulated Protective Order
19 of this Court dated March 11, 1980, a copy of which is attached
20 hereto as Exhibit "A".

21 4. The subject matter of the depositions at issue regards
22 what and when defendant ACandS, Inc. knew about health hazards
23 associated with exposure to asbestos. The subject matter of the 24 depositions is identical to issues being raised at the trials of 25 the non-party movants. None of the subject matter of the 26 depositions relates to trade secrets or proprietary information of 27 ACandS, Inc.

28 5. But for the effect of the March 11, 1980, Protective Order

1 of this Court, the deposition transcripts at issue are admissible
2 at the California trials of non-party movants to demonstrate the
3 state of ACandS, Inc.'s knowledge regarding the health hazards
4 associated with asbestos.

5 I declare under the penalty of perjury, including but not 6 limited to under the laws of the state of California, that the 7 foregoing is true and correct and that this affidavit was executed
8 on December 23, 1996 at Sausalito, California.

2. All extracts and summaries of documents, answers to interrogatories, responses to requests for admissions and testimony designated as confidential as well as briefs or other pleadings quoting or referring to such confidential information shall also be treated as confidential in accordance with the provisions of this Order. Any interrogatories, or responses thereto, requests for admissions, or responses thereto, or other court filings containing information designated as confidential shall be filed with the Court in a sealed envelope with a notation on the front of the envelope as follows: "Confidential--Court Secrecy Order. 5. Nothing contained in this Order shall affect the right of any party or other persons to make any objection, claim or other response to any request for production of documents, interrogatory, request for admissions or question at a deposition permitted by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Nothing in this Order shall constitute a ruling upon any claim by any party or other persons.

6. Nothing contained in this Order shall prevent the use of documents, interrogatory answers, responses to requests for admissions, testimony or information designated "Confidential" at a hearing or at trial or in depositions, on the condition that any such materials or information shall be disclosed or displayed only upon the implementation of all reasonable safeguards to preserve their confidentiality. If such documents, interrogatory answers, responses to requests for admissions, testimony or information are used at a hearing or at trial or in depositions, such documents, interrogatory answers, responses to requests for admissions, testimony or information and all portions of the transcripts and exhibits thereto which refer or relate to such documents, interrogatory answers, responses to requests for admissions, testimony or information, shall be treated as confidential pursuant to the provisions of this Order.

including, but not limited to, data compilations, summaries, indexes and abstracts) shall be returned to counsel for the producing party or other persons.

8. The fact that documents, interrogatory answers, responses to requests for admissions, testimony, summaries or abstracts thereof are designated as confidential under this Order shall not be deemed to be determinative of what a trier of fact may determine to be confidential or proprietary. Absent a stipulation of the parties, the fact of such designation shall not be admissible during a hearing or the trial of this action.

9. The Court, upon a showing of good cause, may order the removal of the confidential designation from any document, interrogatory answer, request for admission, summary or abstract thereof or portion of testimony or otherwise amend this Order.

18 TO ALL PARTIES AND THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:
19 PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that non-parties MACK CLEMONS and CLINTON
20 MOORE shall move the above-captioned Court for an Order granting 21 relief from the protective order dated March 11, 1980 entered in
22 this matter. Such Motion shall be made on the grounds that good
23 cause exists for relief from the Protective Order, to wit: certain
24 transcripts of testimony subject to the Protective Order constitute 25 admissible hearsay as against defendant ACandS, Inc. in the
26 California matters presently proceeding at trial against it; none
27 of the parties to the Protective Order would be unduly prejudiced
28 by the relief requested by this Motion; judicial economy will be

1 served by the relief requested by this Motion; and no trade
2 secrets, proprietary information or other information regarding
3 which any party has a legitimate interest in protecting from 4 disclosure would be compromised by the relief requested by this
5 Motion.

6 PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE that the non-party movants hereby
7 request that, should the Court in its discretion order an oral
8 hearing on this matter, that the hearing be held by telephone
9 conference for the appearance of counsel for non-parties MACK
10 CLEMONS and CLINTON MOORE. Non-parties MACK CLEMONS and CLINTON
11 MOORE further request a prompt hearing date that will accommodate 12 their pending trials against defendant ACandS, Inc., scheduled to
13 commence January 6, 1997 in Department 20 of the San Francisco
14 Superior Court of California.

21 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES IN SUPPORT OF MOTION

22 The record had herein and the Affidavit of Thomas A. Paoli,
23 Esq. filed and served herewith establish the following relevant
24 facts:

25 (1) Non-party movants, MACK CLEMONS and CLINTON MOORE, are
26 plaintiffs in asbestos-related personal injury actions presently
27 pending in the Superior Court of California, San Francisco Superior
28 Court Case Nos. 969011 and 969325, respectively. Trial of those

1 matters is presently "trailing" in Department 20 of that court and
2 is anticipated to begin January 6, 1997. ACandS, Inc. is a party
3 to those actions.

4 (2) As against defendant ACandS, Inc., non-party movants wish
5 to offer into evidence at their California trials certain portions
6 of the following depositions taken in the above-captioned matter,
7 Bonds v. Atlas Asbestos Company, to which ACandS, Inc. was a party:
8 F.L. Gardner dated February 20, 1981; James W. Liddell dated
9 January 13 and February 18, 1981; Charles Q. Livingston dated
10 January 13 and February 18, 1981; John Zeller dated January 14 and 11 February 17, 1981; and John S. Taylor dated May 11, 1981. Such
12 transcripts appear to be subject to the stipulated Protective Order
13 of this Court dated March 11, 1980, a copy of which is attached to 14 the Affidavit of Dean A. Hanley filed and served herewith.

15 (3) The subject matter of the depositions at issue regards
16 what and when defendant ACandS, Inc. knew about health hazards
17 associated with exposure to asbestos. The subject matter of the 18 depositions is identical to issues being raised at the trials of 19 the non-party movants. None of the subject matter of the 20 depositions relates to trade secrets or proprietary information of 21 ACandS, Inc.

22 (4) But for the effect of the March 11, 1980 Protective Order
23 of this Court, the deposition transcripts at issue are admissible
24 at the California trials of non-party movants to demonstrate the
25 state of ACandS, Inc.'s knowledge regarding the health hazards
26 associated with asbestos.

27 Upon the above facts, movants request that this Court grant
28 relief from its March 11, 1980 Protective Order in order to allow

1 movants to use the transcripts at their California trials. ACandS,
2 Inc. has no legitimate grounds for urging judicial protection of
3 the sworn testimony of its principals, which may rightfully be used
4 against it in a California court. Such statements constitute
5 admissions of ACandS, Inc. principals made under circumstances
6 where ACandS, Inc. was fully able to defend its rights. Allowing
7 use of such prior testimony serves judicial economy and spares the
8 witnesses repeated sessions giving substantially similar testimony.
9 ACandS, Inc. would suffer no undue prejudice by relief from the 10 Protective Order to use these transcripts in the trial of movants'
11 cases.

12 CONCLUSION.

13 For the foregoing reasons, non-party movants respectfully
14 request that this Court order that the March 11, 1980, Protective
15 Order be lifted for the purposes of movants using the itemized
16 deposition transcripts at their California trials.

MEMORANDUM OF ACandS, INC. IN OPPOSITION TO MOTION
FOR AN ORDER GRANTING RELIEF FROM PROTECTIVE ORDER

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

ACandS, Inc., a party which for over sixteen (16) years has operated under, in accord with and in reliance upon this Court's Order of March 11, 1980, opposes the present motion filed by non-parties seeking relief from that protective order. This Court has on two prior occasions, since the entry of the protective order, denied motions to modify it. The present motion should be denied on both procedural<sup>1</sup> and substantive grounds. The applicable authorities, the equities and the history of the order should lead this Court to reject movants' effort to modify or vacate the protective order.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

This case, Bond v. Atlas Asbestos Co., was based upon a complaint against a limited number of defendants, including

<sup>1</sup> Movants should have filed a motion to intervene pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 24 to obtain standing to have their motion heard on the merits.

ACandS, Inc., which sought damages for injuries caused by the inhalation of asbestos fibers from a single product, known as "Limpet". During litigation, all parties, plaintiffs as well as defendants, jointly applied to the Court for an order limiting the use of discovery taken in the case and permitting certain documents to be labeled and treated as "Confidential". On March 11, 1980, the Honorable H. Kenneth Wangelin entered the protective order requested by the parties. (A true and correct copy of the Court's Order dated March 11, 1980 is attached hereto as Exhibit "A"). The purpose of the protective order was to secure the just, speedy and inexpensive resolution of this case by assuring open discovery and avoiding repeated applications to the Court. In 1982, this case was settled.

During the litigation, the parties, including ACandS, Inc. relied upon the protective order's provision that discovery was for the purposes of this case alone. ACandS, Inc. based decisions concerning disclosure, objections to disclosure and the handling of issues on that understanding.

During the sixteen (16) years since the entry of the protective order, the parties have repeatedly relied upon the integrity of the order.<sup>2</sup> Twice during that time period, parties have applied to this Court to enforce the order, and twice this Court has upheld it: (1) on September 19, 1985, the Honorable H.

<sup>2</sup> ACandS, Inc. has vigorously pursued enforcement of the Bond protective order in various jurisdictions throughout the country since this case was closed in 1982.

Kenneth Wangelin denied the motion of Turner and Newall, P.L.C. and J.W. Roberts, parties to the Bond case, to modify the protective order. (A true and correct copy of the Court's Order dated September 19, 1985 is attached hereto as Exhibit "B"); and (2) on September 18, 1991, the Honorable Stephen N. Limbaugh rejected the motion of certain plaintiffs with asbestos-related personal injury actions pending in the Circuit Court for Baltimore, Maryland to modify or vacate the protective order and held that "the protective order of March 11, 1980 remains in full force and effect." (A true and correct copy of the Court's Order dated September 18, 1991 is attached hereto as Exhibit "C").

DISCUSSION

THIS COURT SHOULD ONCE AGAIN UPHOLD THE INTEGRITY OF THE PROTECTIVE ORDER UNDER WHICH THE PARTIES CONDUCTED THE LITIGATION, ON WHICH ACandS, INC. HAS RELIED SINCE 1980 AND WHICH HAS BEEN UPHELD BY THIS COURT.

The current movants, who were not parties to the Bond case, now ask this Court to modify the protective order which governed discovery in this case to permit them to utilize the deposition testimony of former ACandS, Inc. employees at the trial of their asbestos-related personal injury actions in California. Movants fail to cite any authority whatsoever to support their request to modify the protective order. However, movants do concede that they must establish good cause to obtain their requested relief.

A brief review of the procedural histories of movants' actions in California clearly demonstrates that they made no efforts to obtain the protected information from other sources. Simply put, movants' counsel did not timely conduct discovery in their California actions on the topic that is the claimed basis for their present request - ACandS, Inc.'s alleged knowledge about the health hazards of asbestos. Faced with that dilemma, movants' counsel filed this motion just one week prior to their January 6, 1996 trial date to obtain information they did not properly develop in a timely manner in the correct forum.

Movants' cases were filed in the Superior Court of the State of California, County of San Francisco, on April 24, 1995 and May 5, 1995. A trial setting conference was held on June 26, 1996. Movants' cases were originally scheduled to be tried on October 21, 1996. Pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure §2024, movants were entitled as a matter of right to conduct discovery up until thirty days before the date initially set for the trial of their actions. Discovery in movants' cases was therefore officially closed on September 21, 1996. During the course of discovery, neither movant claimed exposure to "Limpet", the asbestos-containing product at issue in Bond.

On or about October 25, 1996, counsel for movants and defendants, including ACandS, Inc. appeared before the Honorable Douglas M. Moore, Jr. and addressed various pre-trial matters. After it was determined that Judge Moore would be unable to preside over the trial of these matters, they were subsequently reassigned to the Honorable John Dearman on November 25, 1996. Judge Dearman's calendar did not accommodate the trial of these cases until January 6, 1997. While these matters were before Judge Moore and Judge Dearman, movants' counsel never requested leave of court to conduct additional discovery against ACands, Inc. Thereafter, movants filed their motion to modify the protective order in this Court on December 31, 1996.

For more than sixteen (16) years since this case was settled, the parties have repeatedly taken steps to enforce the provisions of the protective order. Movants were fully aware of the order and had adequate opportunity to conduct discovery to obtain the information they now seek here. Movants cannot establish that the information they seek is not and was not available from other sources. The Court should deny their motion to modify the protective order.

A. The Standard

The entry of a protective order is controlled by Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c) which, as it applied here, provides:

Upon motion by a party or by the person from whom discovery is sought...and for good cause shown, the court in which the action is pending ... may make any order which justice requires to protect a party or person from annoyance, embarrassment, oppression, or undue burden or expense, including... (2) that the disclosure or discovery may be had only on specified terms and conditions...; (6) that a deposition, after being sealed, be opened only by order of the court; [or] (7) that a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information not be revealed or be revealed only in a designated way...

In this instance, the protective order states that it was entered "pursuant to Rule 26(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure."

(Exhibit "A"). This Court considered that there was good cause to enter it.

The modification or lifting of a protective order is "left to the sound discretion of the trial court." Crause v. Rhodes, 671 F.2d 212, 219 (6th Cir. 1982); Omega Homes, Inc. v. Citicorp. Acceptance Corp., 656 F. Supp. 393 (W.D. Va. 1987). In the first instance, the burden is on the party seeking modification. H.L. Hayden Co. of N.Y. v. Siemens Medical Svstems, Inc., 106 F.R.D. 551, 554, (S.D.N.Y. 1985); Omega Homes, Inc., Id.

"When, however, the proposed modification affects a protective order stipulated to by the parties, as opposed to one imposed by the court, it is clear that the shared expectation and explicit assumption that discovery was for the purposes of one case alone goes a long way toward denying the movant's request [for modification] without more." Omega Homes, Inc., 656 F. Supp. 404, citing, GAF Corp. v. Eastman Kodak Co., 415 F. Supp. 129 (S.D.N.Y. 1976); American Tel. & Tel. Co. v. Grady, 594 F.2d 594, 597 (7th Cir. 1978); cert. denied, 404 U.S. 791 (1979).

In addition, when the parties have stipulated to a protective order before presenting it to the court, "there is a higher burden on the movant to justify the modification of the order"; the movant must show "exceptional considerations warranting the alteration of an agreed protective order." American Tel. & Tel. v. Grady, Id. The present movants bear this heavy burden.

In reaffirming the protective order on September 18, 1991, this Court referred to and apparently relied on the decision in H.L. Hayden v. Siemens Medical Svstems, 106 F.R.D. 551 (S.D.N.Y.

1985).<sup>3</sup> In H.L. Hayden, the district court, affirming a magistrate's denial of the modification of a protective order, balanced "a variety of factors" including "the nature of the protective order, the status of the party for whom the modification is sought, the degree to which the protected party relied on the order, and the government's role in the dispute."

Id. In performing its balancing, the court examined four factors:

- (1) whether the protective order was supported by good cause;
- (2) "the extent to which a party resisting modification relied on the protective order in affording access to discovered materials";
- (3) the pendency of other litigation; and
- (4) whether the government rather than a private party is seeking modification.

Id. at 554-556.

Against this standard, it is clear that the movants cannot meet the burden it creates. An evaluation of these factors favors the continued enforcement of the protective order.

1. Good Cause

The movants submit, without any factual or legal support, that ACandS, Inc. has no legitimate grounds for asserting the

<sup>3</sup> Since the entry of the September 18, 1991 Order, the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York has issued another opinion regarding the modification of protective orders, Bayer AG and Miles, Inc. v. Barr Laboratories, 162 F.R.D. 456 (S.D.N.Y. 1995). However, Bayer is not directly on point because the entity seeking modification of the protective order, unlike in H.L. Hayden and the instant case, was a party that had previously stipulated to the entry of the order.

continued validity of the protective order and therefore it may be blithely cast aside.<sup>4</sup> This contention is wrong. Here, the protective order states that "all of the parties in the above cause and pursuant to Rule 26(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, hereby request that the Court enter the following Protective Order." (Exhibit "A"). As previously noted, Rule 26(c) requires that good cause be shown, and based on the order's statement, it is apparent that this Court found good cause. Securing the just, speedy and inexpensive resolution of a case by assuring open discovery and avoiding repeated applications to the Court form strong policy considerations supporting the order. Significantly, the order and the discovery taken pursuant to it substantially contributed to the prompt settlement of the case.

The underlying "good cause" is also evident in Paragraph 9 of the protective order which permits the court to remove a confidential designation or "otherwise amend" the order only "upon a showing of good cause." It would defy logic for the Court to permit a lower standard for modifying or vacating the protective order than was required in the first instance. This is particularly true where, as here, a non-party seeks to modify the order.

The court in H.L. Hayden v. Siemens Medical Svstems, 106

<sup>4</sup> Movants' contention that the protective order should be modified because it does not involve trade secrets or proprietary information is without merit. Good cause for entry of a protective order may exist on a number of grounds independent of whether proprietary considerations are involved. See Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c).

F.R.D. at 557, refused to modify a protective order, commenting that: "the protective order issued in this case has fulfilled a vital function by encouraging full disclosure of all evidence that might conceivably be relevant." The protective order here served a similar function. As noted above, the discovery taken pursuant to the order resulted in the prompt settlement of the case.

The movants cannot challenge the inescapable conclusion that the protective order was supported by good cause.

2. Reliance

The movants state that none of the parties to the protective order would be unduly prejudiced by the relief requested in their motion. Because ACandS, Inc. has relied upon the protective order both during and since the Bond litigation, this contention is without merit.

Reliance upon a protective order is a factor which the Court must give great weight because "the shared expectation and explicit assumption that discovery was for the purposes of one case alone goes a long way toward denying the movant's request [for modification] without more." Omega Homes, Inc. v. Citicorp Acceptance Co., 656 F. Supp. at 404. Proceeding "with discovery under the expectation that the materials disclosed would be used for purposes" of that one lawsuit is a "crucial" factor and constiter, and alone is sufficient reason to deny the present motion. It is beyond doubt that ACandS has substantially relied on the protective order for more than sixteen (16) years and this factor weighs heavily in favor of its continued existence.

3. Pending Litigation

While movants state that judicial economy would be served in their pending litigation by granting this motion, their request for relief is unreasonable under applicable authorities. In H.L. Hayden v. Siemens Medical Systems, 106 F.R.D. at 555, the court remarked that "the Second Circuit has noted that protective orders are subject to modification to meet the reasonable requirements of parties in other litigation. United States v. GAF Corp., supra, 596 F.2d at 16." However, where the moving party is a "collateral litigant," modification is only appropriate when "exceptional circumstances are present." Wilk v. American Medical Ass'n, 635 F.2d 1295, 1297 (7th Cir. 1980) explain responses in terms of that limitation. Yet, if taken out of context and used for purposes of other litigation, responses which initially were limited by the issues in Bond could be misleading. Further, the depositions contain certain unclear statements that ACandS could have, and would have, corrected, if the ground rules had not limited their use to the Bond case.

As in H.L. Hayden, supra, this reliance factor weighs heavily against modifying the protective order, and alone is sufficient reason to deny the present motion. It is beyond doubt that ACandS has substantially relied on the protective order for more than sixteen (16) years and this factor weighs heavily in favor of its continued existence.

3. Pending Litigation

While movants state that judicial economy would be served in their pending litigation by granting this motion, their request for relief is unreasonable under applicable authorities. In H.L. Hayden v. Siemens Medical Systems, 106 F.R.D. at 555, the court remarked that "the Second Circuit has noted that protective orders are subject to modification to meet the reasonable requirements of parties in other litigation. United States v. GAF Corp., supra, 596 F.2d at 16." However, where the moving party is a "collateral litigant," modification is only appropriate when "exceptional circumstances are present." Wilk v. American Medical Ass'n, 635 F.2d 1295, 1297 (7th Cir. 1980). Further, modification may be denied where it would "tangibly prejudice substantial rights of the party opposing modification." Wilk v. American Medical Ass'n, 635 F.2d at 1299.

In this case, there are no exceptional circumstances which support modification. To the contrary, movants seek to "tangibly prejudice substantial rights of the parties who have relied upon the protective order" based solely on their lack of diligence in timely pursuing discovery in their own actions. See, Wilk, supra.

Movants had ample opportunity to conduct discovery in their pending actions in California. Their apparent failure to properly prepare their cases for trial during the time period allotted for discovery does not entitle them to apply to this Court for relief from the protective order after discovery is closed and their cases are in trial. Further, the information they seek from the protected depositions of F.L. Gardner, James W. Liddell, Charles Q. Livingston, John Zeller and John S. Taylor, is available to them through testimony given by these very same individuals in other asbestos cases.

While movants are involved in pending litigation, they have not established any of the exceptional circumstances required before this Court can consider modifying the protective order. Consequently, on balance, this factor weighs in favor of denying the motion.<sup>5</sup>

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, modifying or vacating the protective order under which the discovery in this case was conducted and on which ACandS, Inc. has relied for the last 16 years would substantially prejudice the tangible rights of ACandS, Inc. In addition, movants have not cited any authority for their requested relief nor have they satisfied the standards which govern the modification of protective orders. This Court should deny the motion.

<sup>5</sup> The fourth factor, government involvement, is not relevant to this case. Courts are reluctant to grant "the federal and state governments [which] have at their disposal special investigatory powers not available to private parties" additional assistance in gathering information through modification motions. H.L. Hayden, 106 F.R.D. at 556. However, since movants are private parties these concerns are not at issue.

17
18 TO ALL PARTIES AND THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

19 PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that non-parties MACK CLEMONS and CLINTON
20 MOORE shall move the above-captioned Court for an Order granting 21 relief from the protective order dated March 11, 1980 entered in
22 this matter. Such Motion shall be made on the grounds that good
23 cause exists for relief from the Protective Order, to wit: certain
24 transcripts of testimony subject to the Protective Order constitute
25 admissible hearsay as against defendant ACandS, Inc. in the
26 California matters presently proceeding at trial against it; none
27 of the parties to the Protective Order would be unduly prejudiced
28 by the relief requested by this Motion; judicial economy will be

1 served by the relief requested by this Motion; and no trade
2 secrets, proprietary information or other information regarding
3 which any party has a legitimate interest in protecting from 4 disclosure would be compromised by the relief requested by this
5 Motion.

6 PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE that the non-party movants hereby
7 request that, should the Court in its discretion order an oral
8 hearing on this matter, that the hearing be held by telephone
9 conference for the appearance of counsel for non-parties MACK
10 CLEMONS and CLINTON MOORE. Non-parties MACK CLEMONS and CLINTON
11 MOORE further request a prompt hearing date that will accommodate 12 their pending trials against defendant ACandS, Inc., scheduled to
13 commence January 6, 1997 in Department 20 of the San Francisco
14 Superior Court of California.

22 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES IN SUPPORT OF MOTION

23 The record had herein and the Affidavit of Thomas A. Paoli,
24 Esq. filed and served herewith establish the following relevant
25 facts:

26 (1) Non-party movants, MACK CLEMONS and CLINTON MOORE, are
27 plaintiffs in asbestos-related personal injury actions presently
28 pending in the Superior Court of California, San Francisco Superior
Court Case Nos. 969011 and 969325, respectively. Trial of those

1 matters is presently "trailing" in Department 20 of that court and
2 is anticipated to begin January 6, 1997. ACandS, Inc. is a party
3 to those actions.

4 (2) As against defendant ACandS, Inc., non-party movants wish
5 to offer into evidence at their California trials certain portions
6 of the following depositions taken in the above-captioned matter,
7 Bonds v. Atlas Asbestos Company, to which ACandS, Inc. was a party:
8 F.L. Gardner dated February 20, 1981; James W. Liddell dated
9 January 13 and February 18, 1981; Charles Q. Livingston dated
10 January 13 and February 18, 1981; John Zeller dated January 14 and 11 February 17, 1981; and John S. Taylor dated May 11, 1981. Such
12 transcripts appear to be subject to the stipulated Protective Order
13 of this Court dated March 11, 1980, a copy of which is attached to 14 the Affidavit of Dean A. Hanley filed and served herewith.

15 (3) The subject matter of the depositions at issue regards
16 what and when defendant ACandS, Inc. knew about health hazards
17 associated with exposure to asbestos. The subject matter of the 18 depositions is identical to issues being raised at the trials of 19 the non-party movants. None of the subject matter of the 20 depositions relates to trade secrets or proprietary information of 21 ACandS, Inc.

22 (4) But for the effect of the March 11, 1980 Protective Order
23 of this Court, the deposition transcripts at issue are admissible
24 at the California trials of non-party movants to demonstrate the
25 state of ACandS, Inc.'s knowledge regarding the health hazards
26 associated with asbestos.

27 Upon the above facts, movants request that this Court grant
28 relief from its March 11, 1980 Protective Order in order to allow

1 movants to use the transcripts at their California trials. ACandS,
2 Inc. has no legitimate grounds for urging judicial protection of
3 the sworn testimony of its principals, which may rightfully be used
4 against it in a California court. Such statements constitute
5 admissions of ACandS, Inc. principals made under circumstances
6 where ACandS, Inc. was fully able to defend its rights. Allowing
7 use of such prior testimony serves judicial economy and spares the
8 witnesses repeated sessions giving substantially similar testimony.
9 ACandS, Inc. would suffer no undue prejudice by relief from the 10 Protective Order to use these transcripts in the trial of movants'
11 cases.

12 CONCLUSION.

13 For the foregoing reasons, non-party movants respectfully
14 request that this Court order that the March 11, 1980, Protective
15 Order be lifted for the purposes of movants using the itemized
16 deposition transcripts at their California trials.

EYVON MENDENHALL, CLERK
U. S. DISTRICT COURT

JOINT REQUEST BY ALL PARTIES FOR PROTECTIVE ORDER
PURSUANT TO RULE 26(c)

Come now all of the parties in the above cause and pursuant to Rule 26(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, hereby request that the Court enter the following Protective Order:

1. (a) All documents produced or to be produced by any party or other persons in connection with this litigation, any answers to interrogatories, responses to requests for admissions and all deposition testimony, shall be used for no purpose except the purposes of this litigation.

(b) Any party or other persons may designate any documents produced or to be produced by it in connection with this litigation, any answers to interrogatories, responses to requests for admissions or deposition testimony as "Confidential." If such documents, interrogatory answers, responses to requests for admissions, testimony or information are used at a hearing or at trial or in depositions, such documents, interrogatory answers, responses to requests for admissions, testimony or information and all portions of the transcripts and exhibits thereto which refer or relate to such documents, interrogatory answers, responses to requests for admissions, testimony or information, shall be treated as confidential pursuant to the provisions of this Order.

Armstrong Contracting is a large-scale insulation contracting organization comprising Armstrong Contracting and Supply Corporation, operating in the United States and its possessions, and Armstrong Contracting Canada Limited, operating in Canada and its territories. The size and scope of operations of Armstrong Contracting offer many cost and service advantages to purchasers of insulation materials and contract work.

While size is certainly an indication of ability and success, it alone is no guarantee of a contractor's ability to perform insulation work to the complete satisfaction of the buyer. Two other important considerations always must be the integrity and the financial responsibility of the contractor.

How well Armstrong Contracting qualifies on these two counts can be judged from its business background. Subsidiaries of Armstrong Cork Company, these organizations were recently formed when the decision was made to operate the Company's 50-year-old contracting business separately to provide increased concentration on this growing phase of activity and strengthen its competitive position. The more than 50 years of Armstrong experience in the insulation contracting business form the background of Armstrong Contracting.

These organizations subscribe to a business philosophy that assures the customer of quality insulation materials and workmanship. They have the full financial resources to meet all obligations promptly and to complete any contract in spite of unforeseen events.

Armstrong Contracting is organized for service. How that organization performs and what advantages it offers you as an insulation buyer are described on the pages that follow.

Offices in all major trading areas

From Armstrong's network of offices, you can obtain local service on material purchases or contract work anywhere in the United States and Canada, and their possessions and territories.

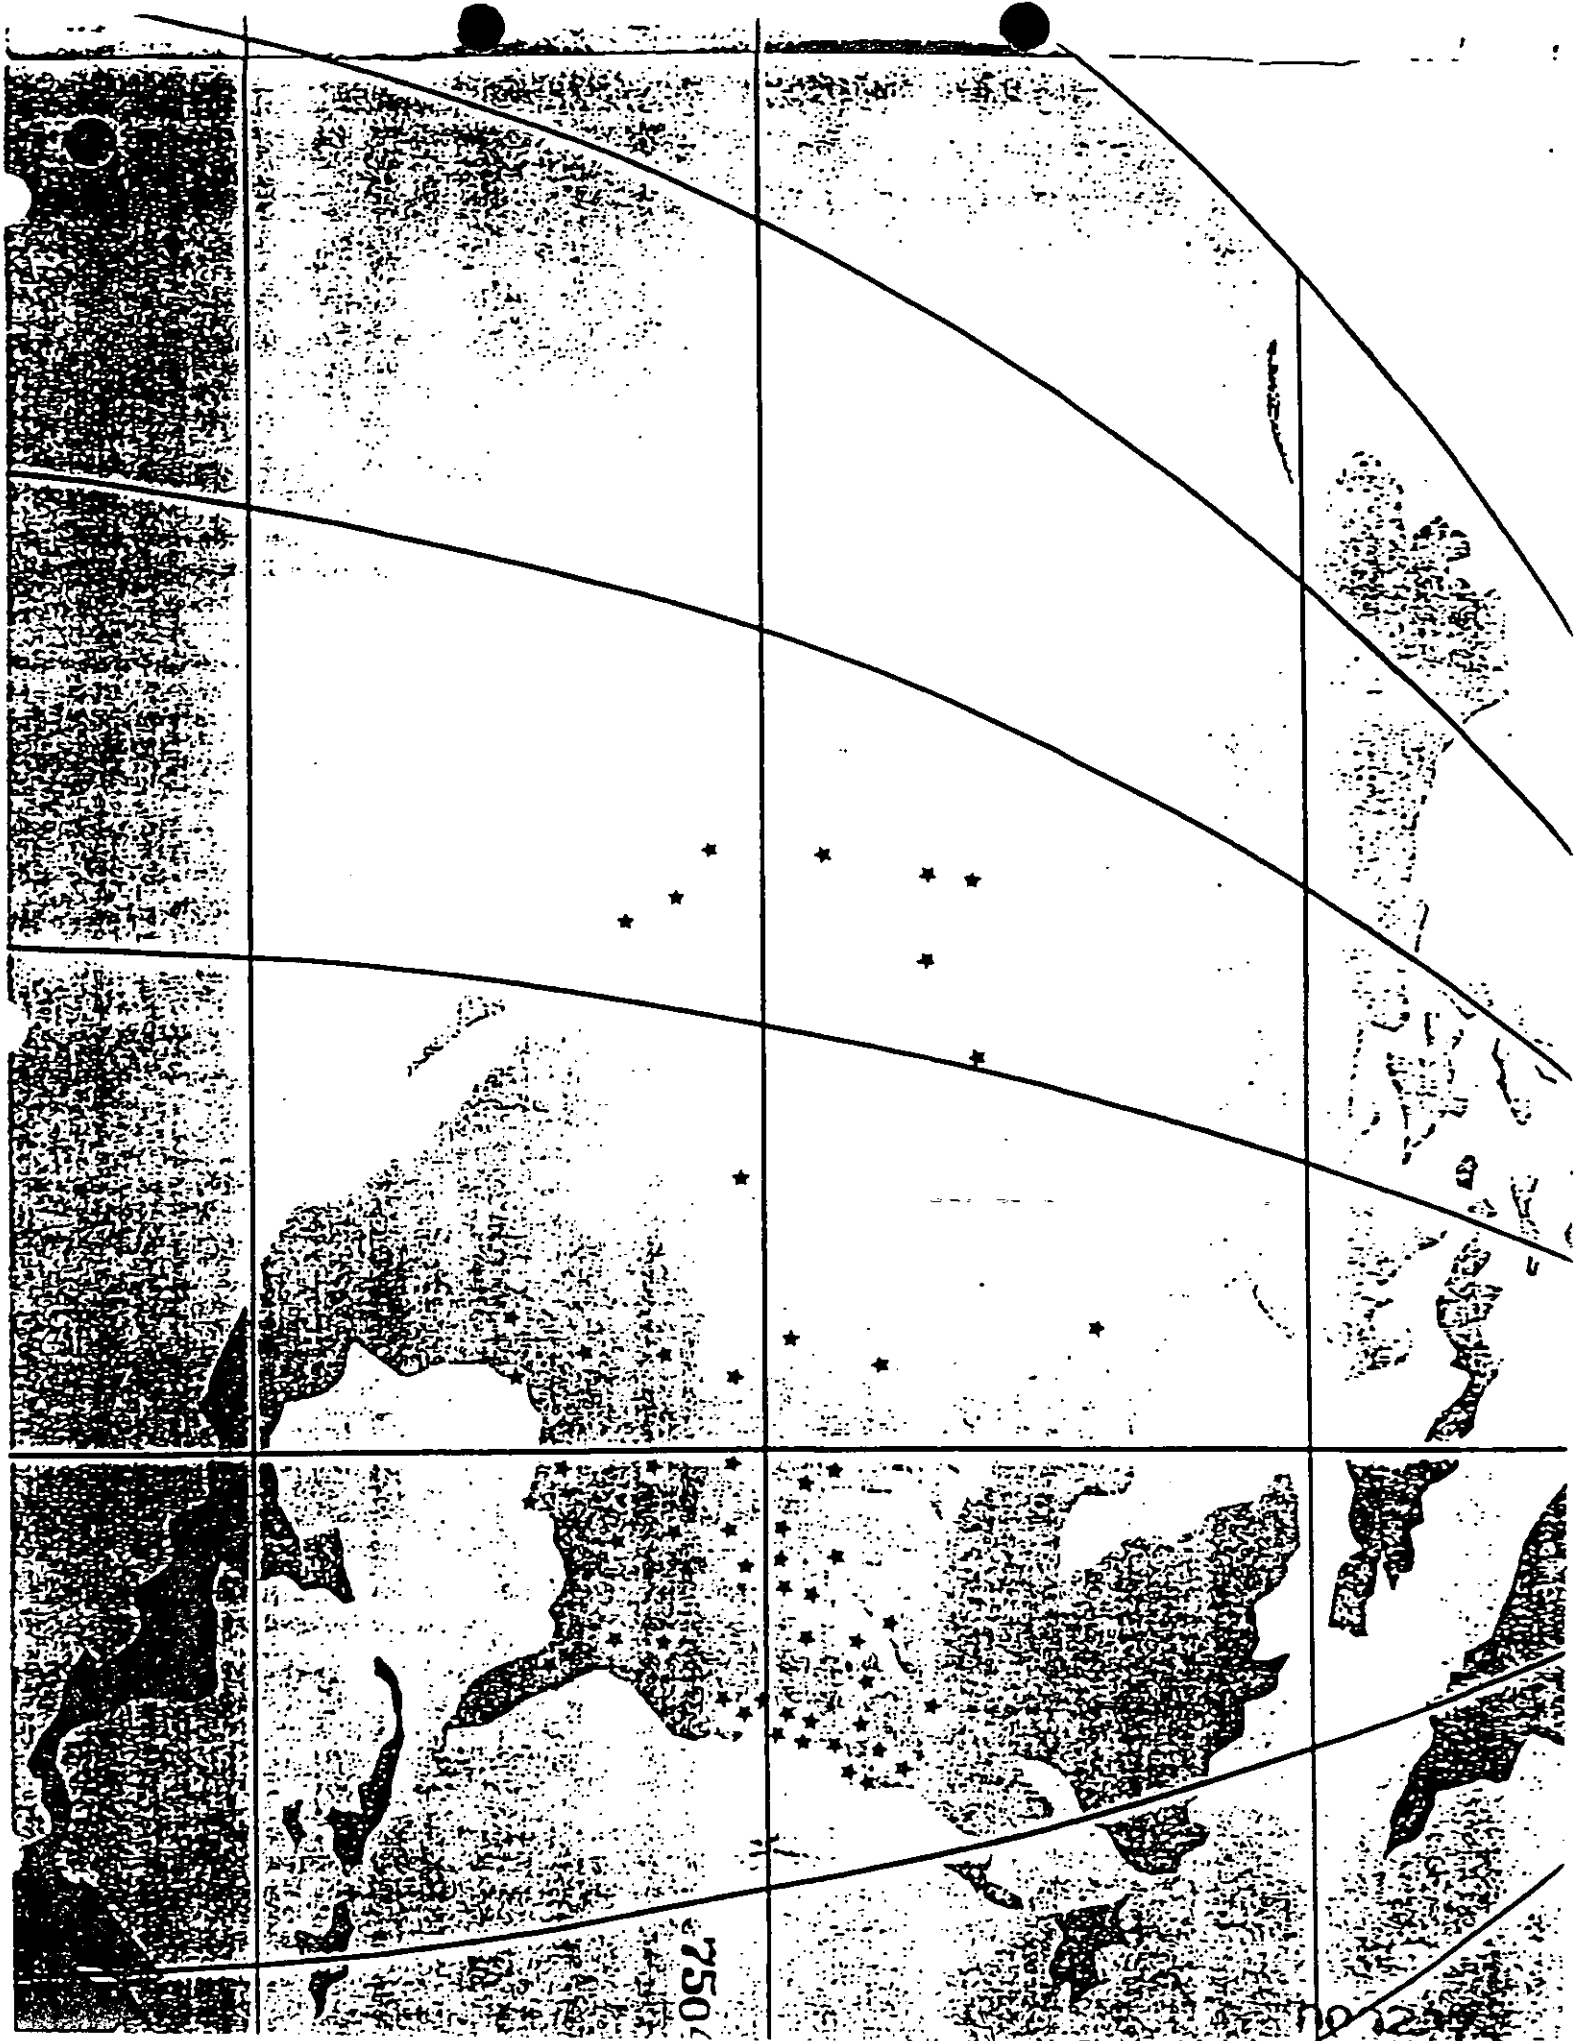

This complete service includes consultation in design and engineering stages, assistance in specification of the correct insulation for any application, and full execution of insulation contracts. These phases of Armstrong operation are described in detail further along in this booklet.

For companies who operate on a national or international basis, dealing with Armstrong means greatly simplified insulation purchasing. Take for example a company with home offices in the East, buying insulation work at widely separated locations in other parts of the country. Armstrong men can work with home office engineers of this company, developing plans and specifications, submitting bids, and arranging job schedules. Then the actual installation can be carried out with complete understanding in the area where the facility is being erected. Every step of the job, including handling of paper work as installation progresses, is standardized and simplified, cutting costs and eliminating misunderstandings.

In addition to contract operations, Armstrong distributes and sells insulation materials and sundry items on an outright sale basis. Local warehouse stocks are maintained for prompt service on orders.

Complete line of materials

Armstrong Contracting sells and installs a complete line of materials for all temperature ranges. Major product lines include glass fiber insulations; 85% magnesia, calcium silicate, and mineral wool products; cellular glass, foamed plastics, and cork insulations; sundry items for application and finishing; and a complete line of pre-fabricated cold rooms.

Other products that frequently are included in a contract for insulation work, such as cold storage doors, tracking and shelving, and special light-gauge metal finishes also are sold and applied by Armstrong.

Because it handles a complete line of all types of insulating products, Armstrong can recommend in all instances the most economical and best material for your individual job requirements.

Listed at the right are the products regularly carried in the complete Armstrong line. Insulation materials not included in the listing usually can be obtained economically through Armstrong by out-right purchase or through contract application.

Insulation engineering aid

Every year construction, fuel, and maintenance costs rise, making the savings to be realized from properly designed insulation increasingly important to economical operation. Every year, as industrial processing becomes more complex, exacting temperature control is not only desirable, but in many cases absolutely essential for successful operation.

In the face of these realities, the specification of insulation is a job for experts. There are so many insulating materials on the market and so many ways of applying them, that an economical, efficient job must be carefully designed. Armstrong engineers are well qualified to help in that design.

They can draw not only on their own training and experience but also on the experience of the entire organization. For example, knowledge gained by one office during the execution of an insulation contract for an atomic power station becomes available to the entire Armstrong organization. In the planning of specialized work, interchange of this kind of information can be particularly valuable as a supplement to the services of your architects and engineers.

Many Armstrong customers have found that qualified advice during early job stages avoids problems, saves money, and makes the entire job a better one. And this foresight costs no money. Feel free to call on Armstrong engineers at any time. They are insulation experts, and their advice is freely given, without obligation.

750439

Prompt, accurate bidding

General contractors, mechanical contractors, and all other insulation contract buyers must be able to depend on an insulation contractor for prompt response to bid requests.

Because it is a large organization, Armstrong is able to offer bid service far beyond the ability of the insulation contractor operating only at a local level. To handle requests for bid work, Armstrong maintains a staff of experienced estimators in each office. These men can quickly and accurately respond to the normal flow of bid requests.

In working with companies buying insulation work in widely scattered locations, Armstrong estimators in the area where the work is to be done can prepare the estimates. Bids then can be submitted through the Armstrong office nearest the home office of the customer. Bid preparation often can be simplified and expedited by following this procedure.

This great flexibility in preparation of estimates and bids allows any Armstrong office anywhere to bid any size job, or any number of jobs, and meet the due dates.

The advantage of a large national estimating staff makes possible the Armstrong policy of responding to any bid request that local management feels offers a reasonable chance of resulting in Armstrong's obtaining the insulation contract.

Competent job supervision

The best measure of an insulation contracting company's ability is the performance of its organization on the job. In addition to applying the insulation satisfactorily, planning ahead so that the work is coordinated with that of the other trades is most important to the progress of the project.

In the organizational setup of Armstrong Contracting, responsibility for job execution belongs to a project management team composed of the sales engineer, construction superintendent, and foremen.

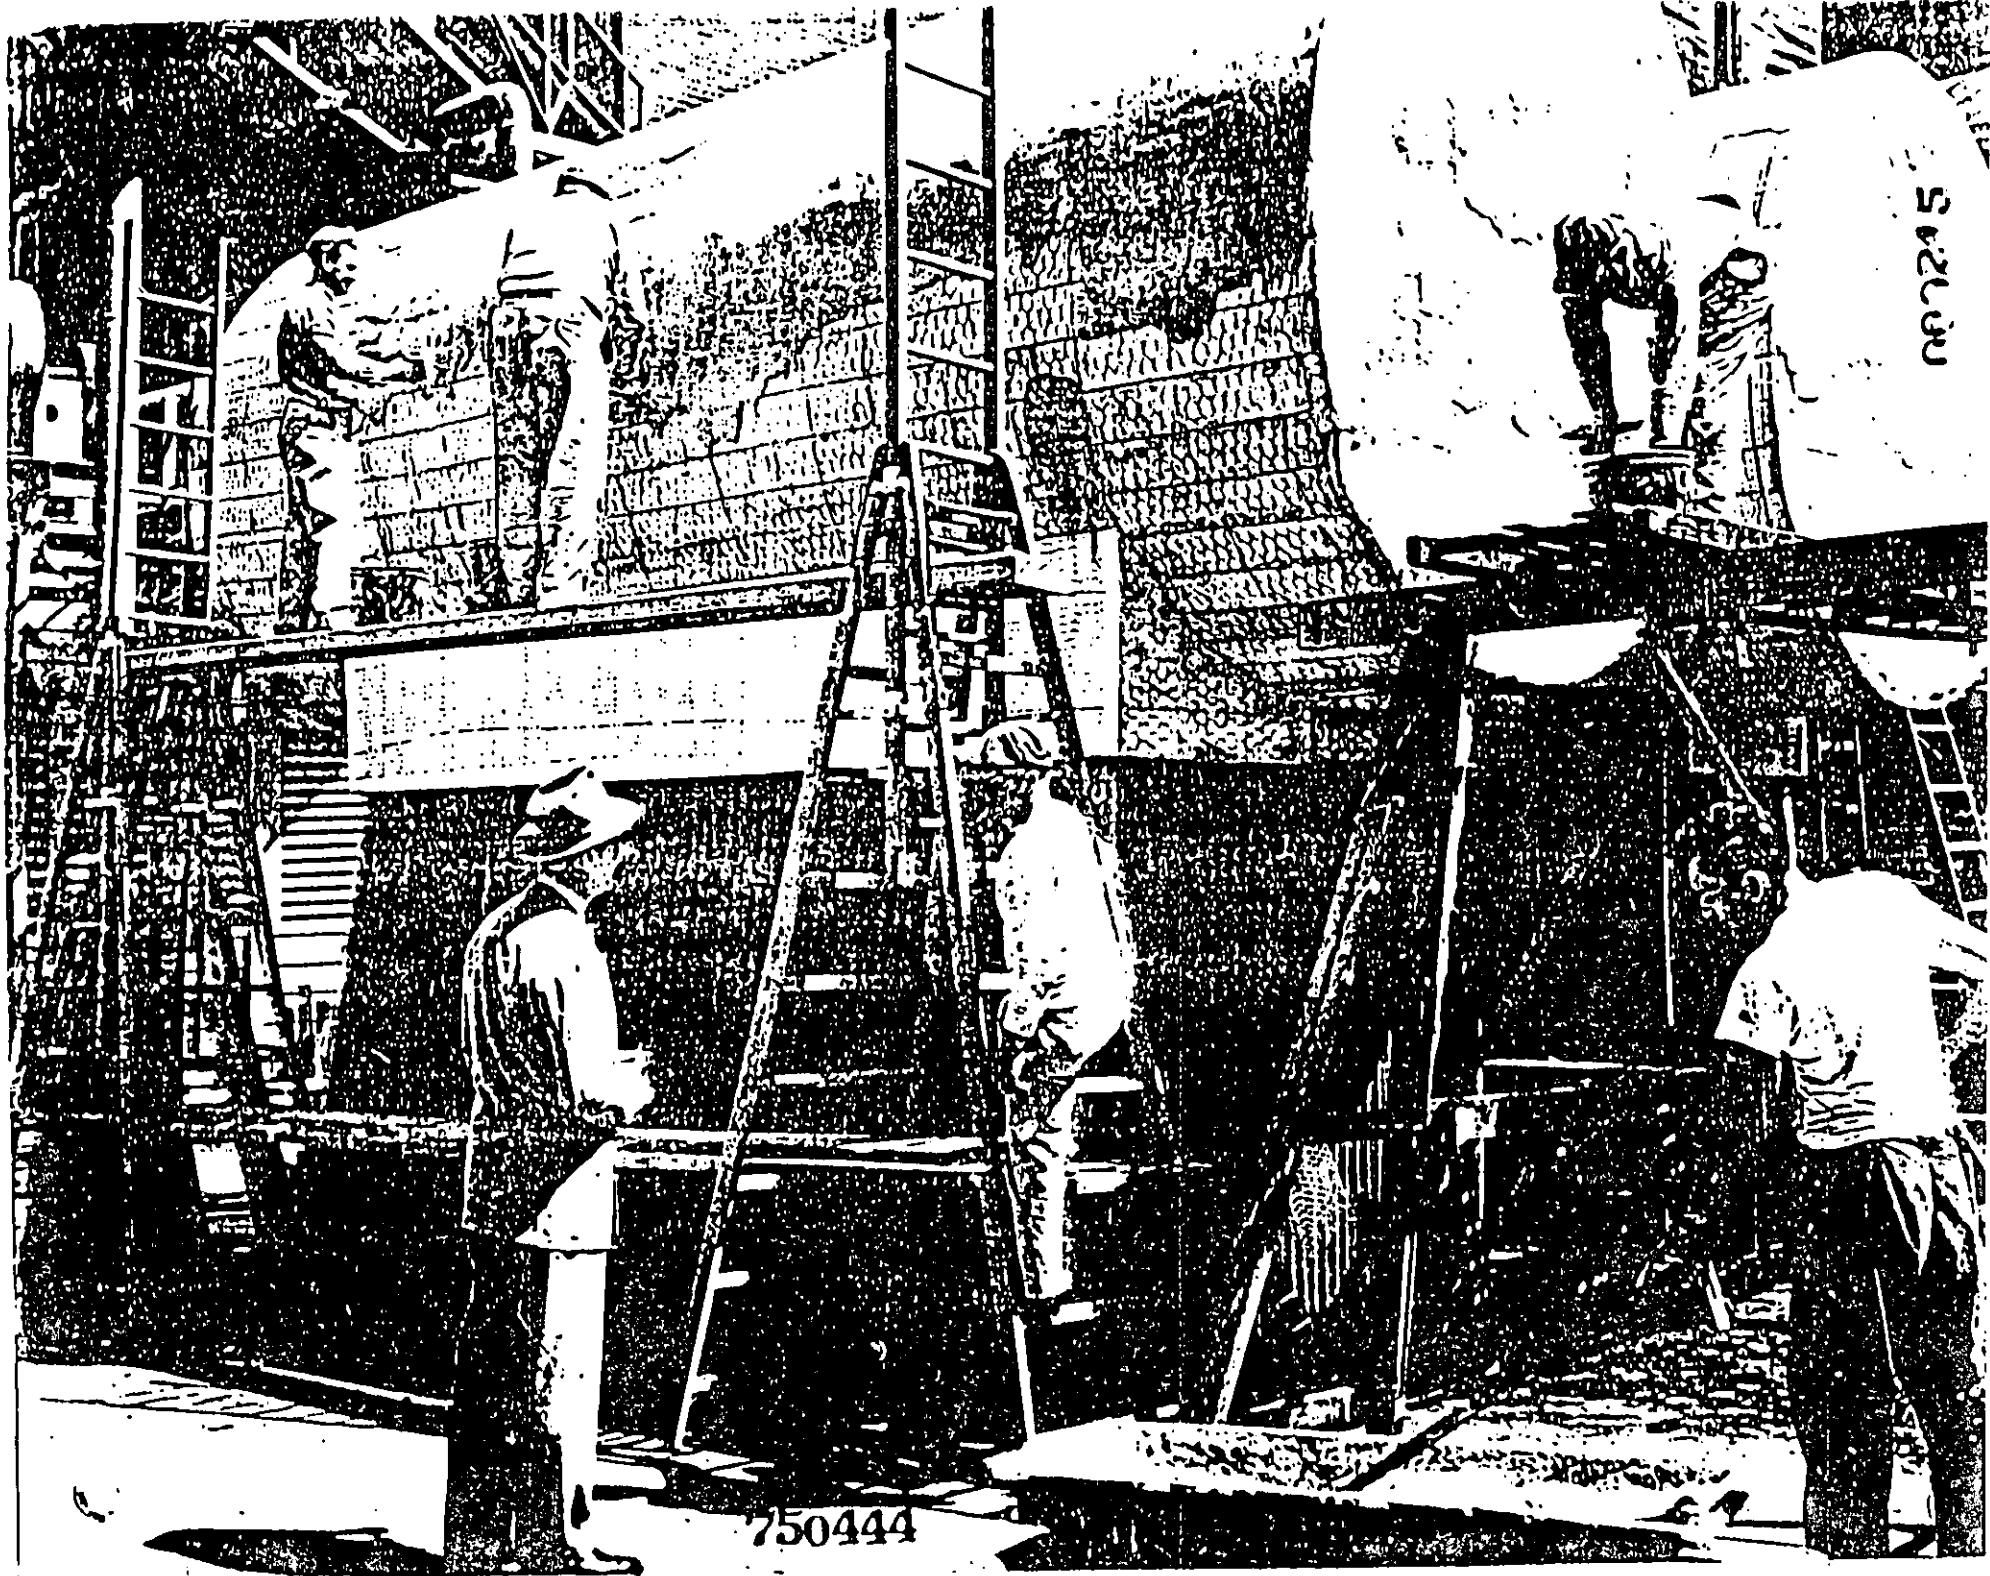

When the sales engineer has planned the working schedule with the customer, the construction superintendent takes over. It is his responsibility to schedule delivery of materials, arrange job labor schedules, and generally oversee all contract operations in his territory. These men are experienced not only in getting the insulation contracts completed on time but also in working closely with other trades on the job site so that the general progress of the work can go forward as smoothly as possible. All are full-time Armstrong employees, and most of them have long records of service with the Company.

Working directly under the superintendents are the foremen. Their job is to get the insulation applied in accordance with the specifications and on schedule. These men, too, are full-time Armstrong employees and all are thoroughly experienced in the insulation business. We are especially proud of our foremen and of their reputations as good managers as well as skilled craftsmen.

Adequate manpower resources

The fact that Armstrong Contracting does a large volume of business means that it can offer steady employment to a large number of workmen. Skilled, conscientious men are attracted by this kind of operation as they are to any large company offering good employment opportunities. As a result, over the years, Armstrong has built up crews of experienced insulation craftsmen in every section of the country.

Because these men have worked on large jobs and small ones of every conceivable type and under all conditions, they are qualified by experience and training to apply your insulation so that it will deliver the service you expect.

Normal contract activity in each area usually can be handled by these employees. When the job requires it, this group can be expanded to any number needed to meet the demands of any job, no matter how large.

Like all people in the Armstrong organization, our workmen are trained in the tradition of good craftsmanship. Long years of experience have convinced us that even the best materials cannot perform at a high degree of efficiency year after year unless they are properly installed.

Efficient administration

Completely satisfactory performance of an insulation contract requires more than engineering assistance, complete line of materials, and workmanlike application on the job site. The manner in which all paper work requirements of a contract are handled also must be considered an important element of the contractor's ability to perform.

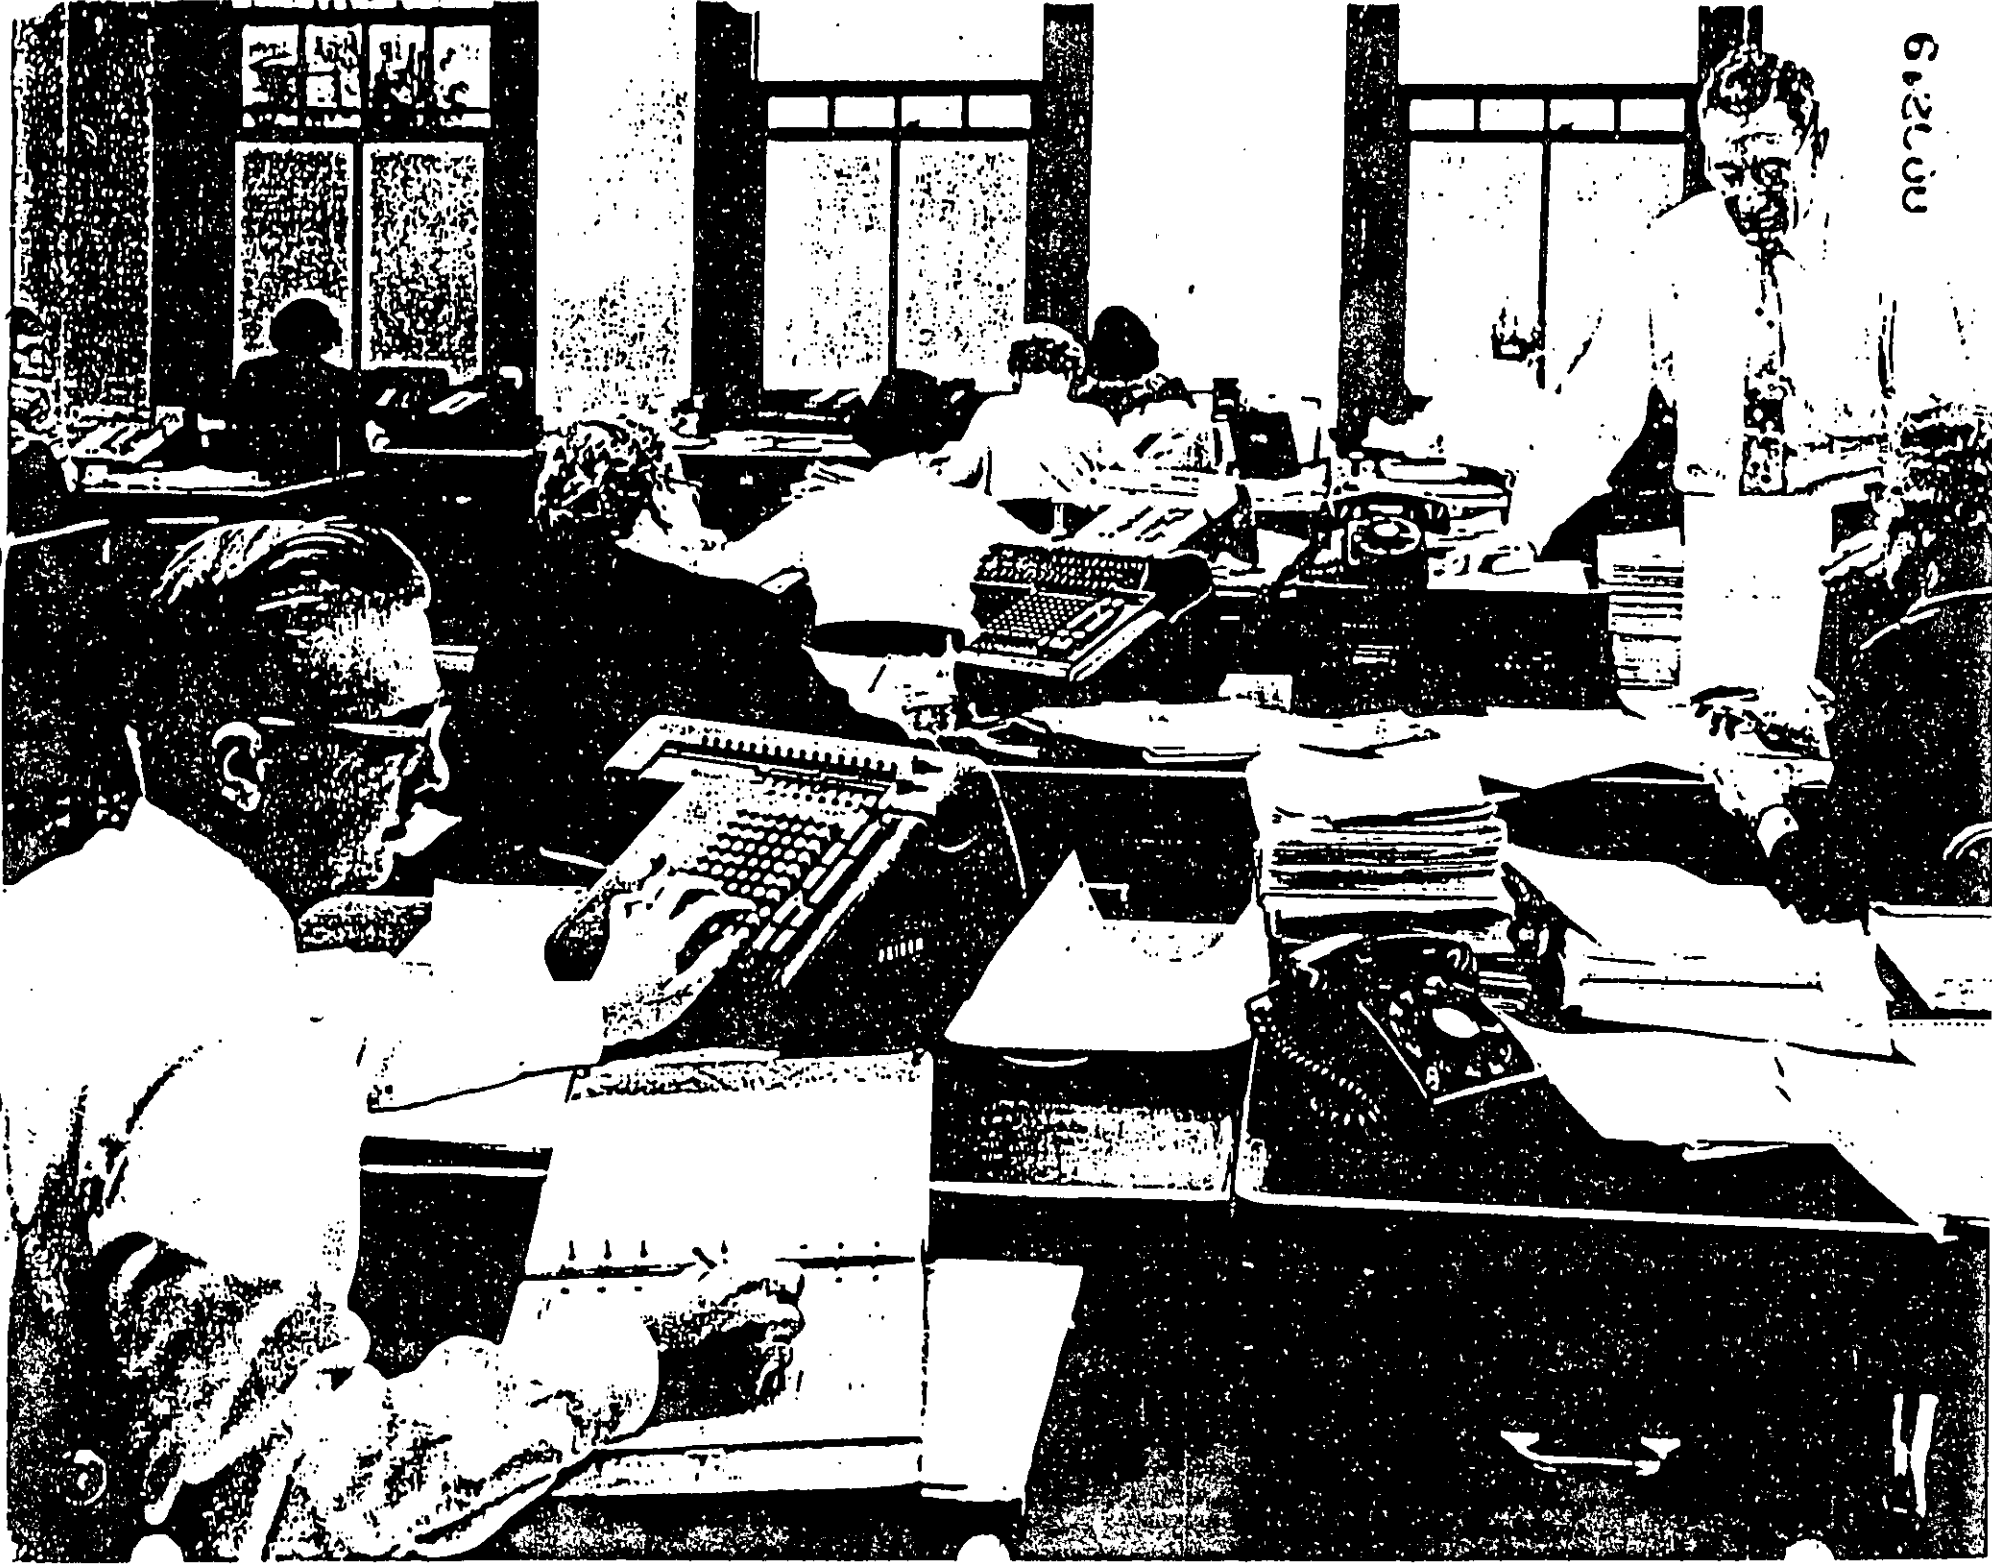

Correct and accurate accounting eliminates misunderstanding and contributes toward harmonious relationships between contractor and customer. A thorough knowledge of local operating procedures and adherence to them help expedite the work. Observance of all legal requirements and responsibilities of contracting, plus proper handling of tax provisions, adequate insurance coverage, and full compliance to requirements of workmen's compensation programs, must be managed efficiently as part of the contractor's service.

Armstrong Contracting has a thorough knowledge of the paper work phases of contracting and is geared to assume full responsibility for proper handling of this work.

Uniform systems are followed in all offices. This means that the customer working with Armstrong at locations in different parts of the country can be assured of the paper work on every job being handled according to a uniform system. This saves time and trouble for everyone concerned and eliminates misunderstandings.

● Long-term association

To national companies who buy insulation work in widely scattered locations and to local organizations who are frequent insulation contract buyers, Armstrong offers attractive cost-saving and service advantages.

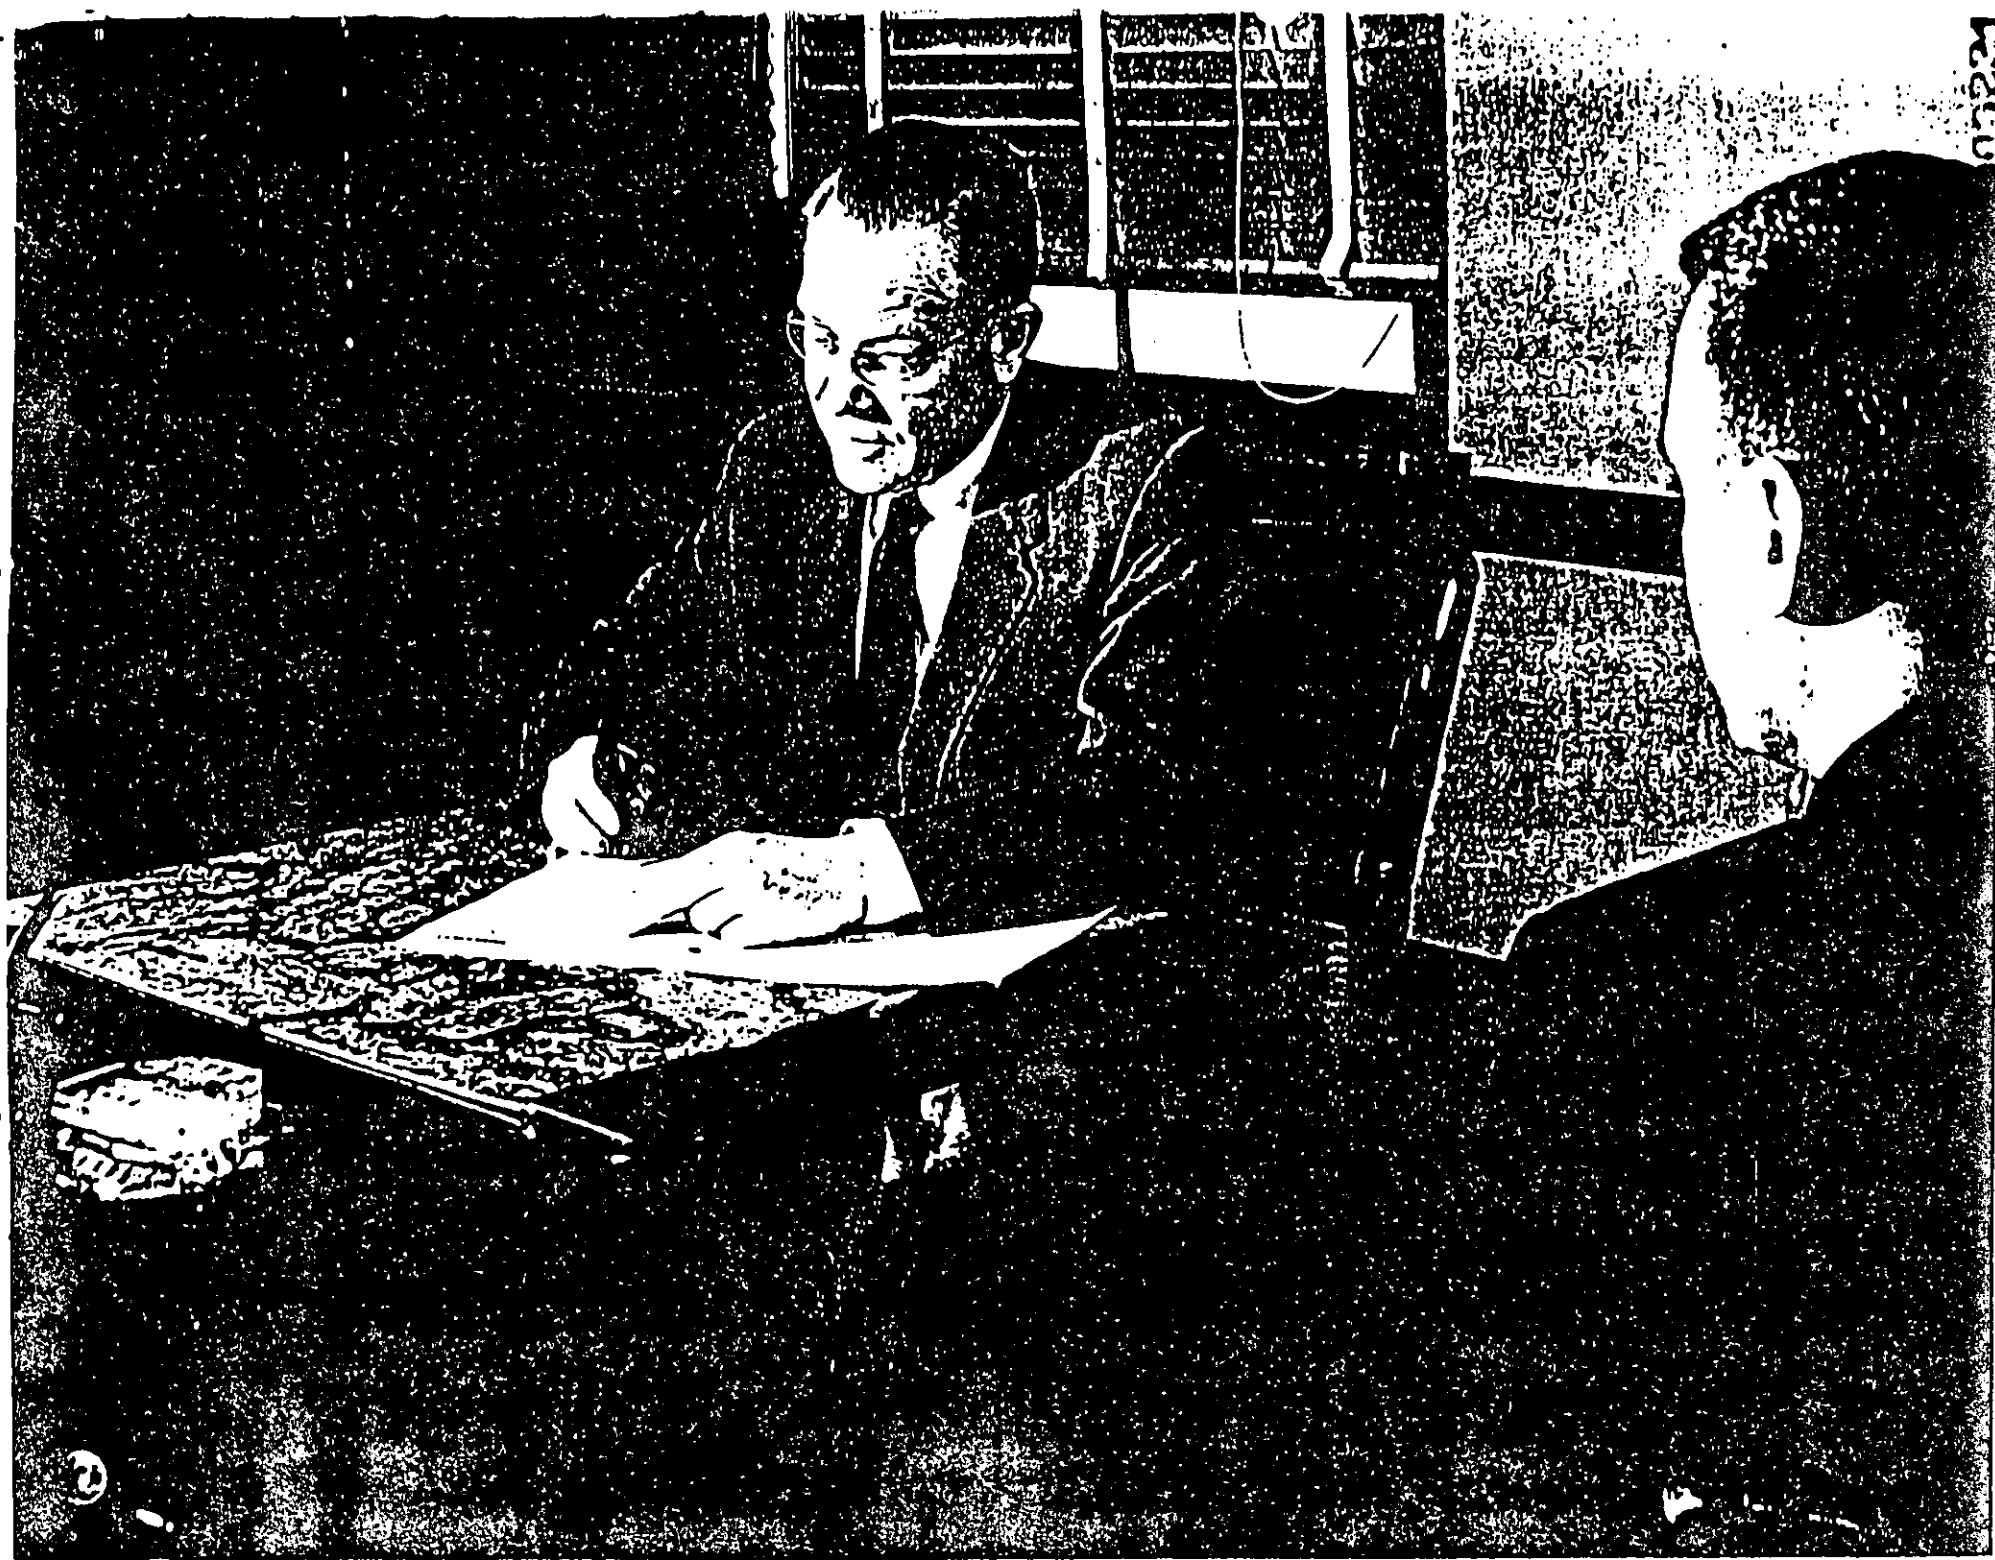

These companies have found that placing a high volume of continuous business in the hands of this well-qualified organization creates a high degree of interest and a strong sense of obligation on the part of the contractor. Better workmanship and service result because Armstrong supervisors and mechanics soon become familiar with individual plants, methods of operation, and insulation specification requirements.

Lower internal costs are possible due to elimination of time-consuming bid inquiries and bid evaluation on every job as it occurs. Time and trouble are saved by standardization and simplification of paper work. Every job is handled in the same manner, regardless of its location. Misunderstandings are eliminated and communications simplified.

A representative from your nearest Armstrong Contracting office will be glad to discuss the details with you at any time.

Varied job experience

Armstrong's long experience includes execution of contracts for insulation of buildings, plants, and equipment of all sizes and types. Job categories range through the entire construction field, from chemical processing plants, refineries, power stations, and paper mills to commercial, industrial, and institutional buildings, cold storage installations, research facilities, and ships.

Companies in the construction field are known and judged in part by their performance records. At Armstrong we are proud of that record. A portion of it is included on the following pages. The projects listed and illustrated are those on which we have completed large insulation contracts during the past several years.

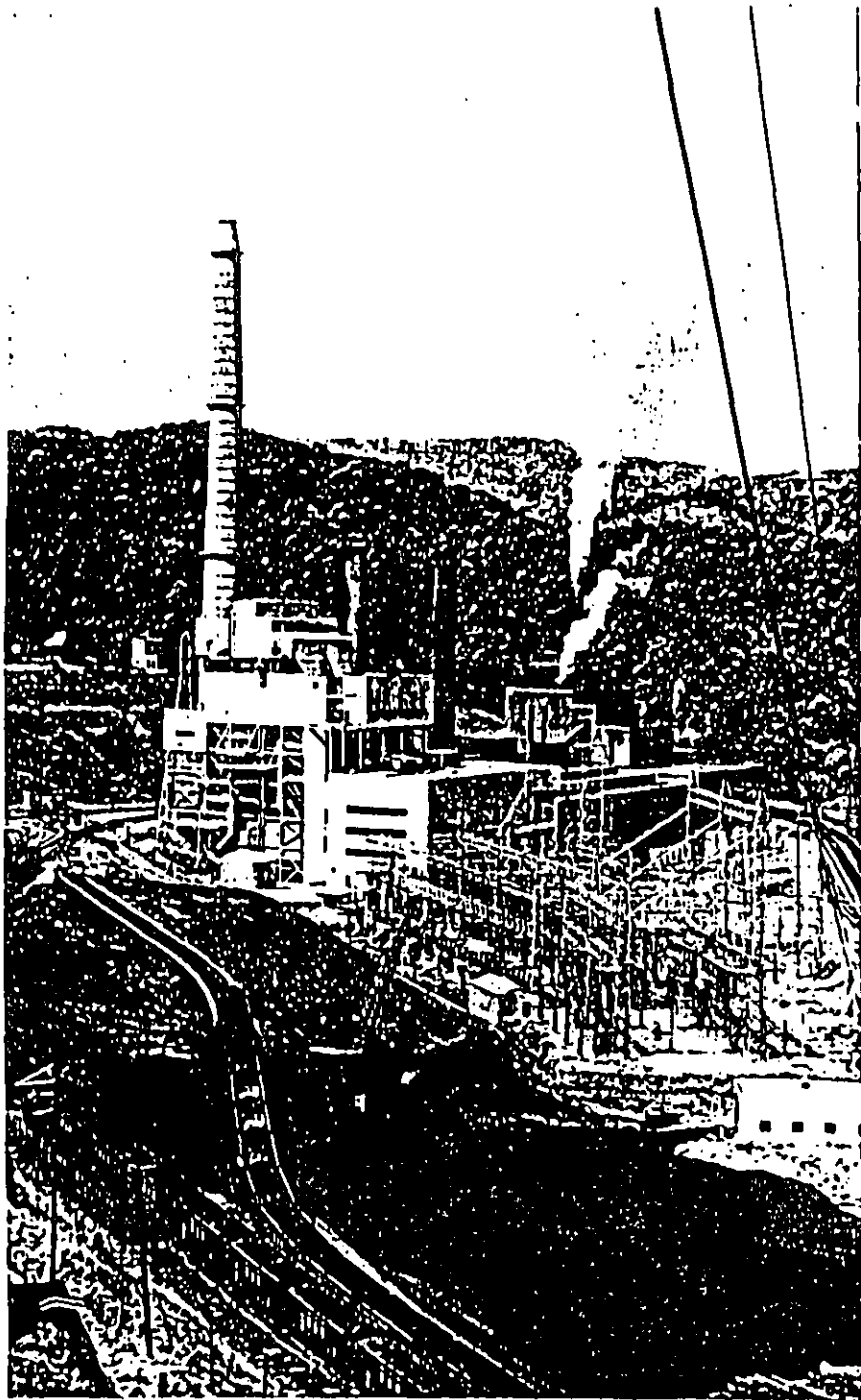

On each of these jobs, as well as the thousands of others, both large and small, that makes up the background of Armstrong experience, the Armstrong organization has made every effort to carry out its policy of giving full measure of value for each dollar invested in insulation work.

COLD STORAGE

Armstrong experience in cold storage work and knowledge of the requirements of this type of construction have made this organization the recognized authority in the low-temperature field. Because of the moisture conditions and wide temperature differentials encountered in cold storage construction, good building practice is important to satisfactory performance of the finished job. In more than 50 years in the low-temperature insulation business, the Armstrong organization has insulated many thousands of cold rooms. Last Friday, March 28, 1958, I received a phone call from a Mr. Charles Scmski of Employers Mutual of Wausau. Mr. Scmski told me that his company insured Armstrong Cork. He asked me if I could possibly obtain for him information concerning the subject employee.

Mr. Swartout is from the state of California. He worked for us from November 28, 1950 to January 24, 1951. The reason for his termination was illness. The following is a list of the information requested:

1. Exact dates of employment.
2. Location of Work.
3. Type of occupation.
4. Where he worked from Nov. 28, 1950 to Jan. 24, 1951.

As this information is not available at this office, I would appreciate any help you can give me regarding this problem. If you would wish to forward information directly to Mr. Scmski, his address is:

Dear Mr. Scomski:

Subject: John E. Svartout - 1/10/55

A letter from our district office in Pittsburgh states you requested certain information concerning Mr. Svartout and left our employee, who was taking your phone call, under the impression that Svartout's employment was covered by an Employers Mutual workmen's compensation policy.

Prior to 1952, Armstrong Cork Company did have a policy with Employers Mutual covering our manufacturing operations in South Gate, California. Mr. Svartout, however, was not employed at our South Gate Plant.

John E. Swartout v.
Armstrong Cork Company
Claim A42-35421

Gentlemen:

Persuant to my telephone conversation with Miss Sukits in your Pittsburgh office, I am writing to you directly.

The matter that I am writing to you about concerns certain information that I need about a former employee, whose name is John E. Swartout. His social security number is 472-10-9876. It is my understanding that this man was not employed at your South Gate Plant in California; nevertheless, I will still need certain information to properly defend and action by the widow of John E. Swartout.

This former employee has been given an award in the sum of $7,000, which is a death benefit. He has also received a sum of $2,550 for temporary disability due to an occupational disease of asbestosis. This award of course includes a $400 burial expense sum. This award was granted by Referee Purvis of the California Commission. I am now interested in obtaining the following information: (1) The exact dates of employment, (2) Location of the plant or plants during the course of employment and (3) The type of occupation he pursued. I would appreciate this information to embrace the period from November 28, 1950 until January 24, 1951. I will need this information even though this employee was not employed at a plant which we insure. It is my understanding that we only insured your South Gate Plant.

Will you please send me this information at your earliest convenience.

Thanking you for your cooperation, I remain

Yours very truly

Re: Bergit A. Swartout
(Widow of John E. Swartout)
vs. Mundet Cork Corp., et al
I.A.C. No. 169-171

Gentlemen:

In the above entitled matter, we appear both for Standard Accident Insurance Company and Travelers Insurance Company, who at different times were your insurance carrier. Proceedings were brought against State Compensation Insurance Fund, as insurance carrier for Western Asbestos Company. The Industrial Accident Commission held that John E. Swartout contracted asbestosis, which caused disability and death, and made an award against the State Fund. It now seeks to apportion the total liability, by establishing that there was also exposure to asbestos while the decedent was working for other employers.

We are interested in knowing whether there is affirmative evidence that can be produced that will establish that there was no exposure to asbestos during all, or any part, of the employment for Armstrong Cork Company. The employments in which we are interested are as follows:

1. In March and May, 1949. Apparently, this was at the Carnation Company, Stockton.
2. In June, 1951. This apparently was at the Contra Costa Steam Plant of Pacific Gas & Electric Company.
3. June, 1951, through September, 1951. This was in Alaska. With respect to this employment, we want to know whether it was under a written or an oral contract, and whether the contract of employment was made in the State of California, or in Alaska, as well as information as to the type of work done.

Page two - 3/24/59
Re: John E. Swartout, Decd.

4. From December 27, 1954, to January 16, 1955. This was work on five ships at Bethlehem Pacific Shipyards in San Francisco.

Enclosed please find a copy of a letter from your Mr. Schiedt, Jr., dated September 18, 1956. The letter mentions the use of magnesia and cork on the different jobs mentioned. The case against Western Asbestos Company was established through the testimony of a Mr. Wayne Kelly, business representative of Local 16 of the Asbestos Workers Union, who testified that Western Asbestos Company used a Johns-Manville product which was 85% magnesium and 15% asbestos.

Will you please advise whether you used a magnesia product which also contained asbestos. We also want to know whether there are work orders or other business records of any sort through which it can now be established that cork and other non-asbestos types of insulation were used on each of the jobs on which Mr. Swartout worked, and the name of the person who has those records under his control and could testify at any further hearing.

Very truly yours,

Ivan A. Schiedt

I.A.C. No. 169-171

Dear Mr. Schwab:

Please refer to your letter dated March 24, 1959 on the above subject.

There is no affirmative evidence that can be produced at this time to establish that there was no exposure to asbestos during or any part of the employment of Mr. John E. Swartout by the Armstrong Cork Company. Our contract records on the jobs in question have been destroyed in keeping with our normal retention schedule.

On each of the jobs referred to in your letter, with the exception of No. 1, Carnation Company, Stockton & Magnesia product which contained 15% or less asbestos long fibers was used. On the Carnation milk job, cork covering containing no asbestos fiber was used. The additional fact that on the Pacific Gas & Electric Company job, the Alaska work, and the Bethlehem Pacific Shipyard work a goodly portion of the materials used contained no asbestos fiber. Such materials as cork covering, and mineral wool products were also employed.

With respect to his employment in Alaska, no written contract was involved in the hiring. He was hired through Local No. 97 of the International Association of Heat and Frost Insulators and Asbestos Workers of Anchorage, Alaska, on an open call for men. The type of work involved applying insulation on a government housing project at Fort Richardson near Anchorage, Alaska. Materials installed consisted of Fiberglas, and Wool Felt pipe covering for the Heating and Plumbing systems. A small quantity of 85% Magnesia block was used for the hot water storage tank.

We hope the above information will be of service to you. Please let us know if there is any further assistance we can give.

This will confirm my telephone conversation with you, in which I advised that we would like to have a witness present at the further hearing that has been set in this case, to testify with regard to the type of materials used on your jobs where the decedent was employed, as set forth in your letter of April 3, 1959. The hearing is set for all morning, beginning at 9:00 A. M., on August 3, 1959, at 510 Thayer Building, 577 - 14th Street, Oakland. I would like to have the witness present about 10:00 A. The Travelers Oakland office requested that we send you, in triplicate, the earnings record of Robert F. Cuthbertson during the years insured by Travelers women's compensation policies. Photostats covering the years 1952, 1953 and 1954 are enclosed.

His duties as a skilled insulation mechanic include the application of various types of pipe coverings and block insulation, job site fabrication of fittings, and the use of insulating cements. The products used are manufactured from a number of different basic materials including, in part, cork covering, asbestos felts, magnesium carbonate reinforced with asbestos fibers, diatomaceous silica combined with a mineral filler and slag mineral wool.

We know your attorneys both in your San Francisco and Oakland offices have had considerable experience handling asbestosis-claims. However, if you require more details regarding working conditions, etc., please contact our Mr. J. S. Taylor, manager of the San Francisco office of Armstrong Contracting and Supply Corporation, a wholly owned subsidiary of Armstrong Cork Company, whose address is 304 Shaw Road, South San Francisco.

Dear Mr. Taylor:

Subject: Lloyd V. Viall
D/A - 5/13/59
Workmen's Compensation - Nevada

The attached Nevada Form C-2 is to be completed by the employer, employee, and physician. Nevada, being a monopolistic state, requires the employer to insure in the State Fund so that Travelers is not involved insofar as Mr. Viall's employment in Nevada is concerned.

Records here in Lancaster reveal the following employment with Armstrong Cork Company and Armstrong Contracting and Supply Corporation:

9/21/55 to 12/22/55
8/25/58 to 9/30/58
10/7/58 to 5/22/59

The first two periods were out of the Los Angeles office and the last one involved San Francisco which resulted in the following monthly reports of Mr. Viall's Nevada earnings to the Nevada Commission:

1958	Nov.	$448.00	14 days
	Dec.	672.00	21 days
1959	Jan.	288.00	9 days
	Feb.	none
	Mar.	326.00	10 days
	Apr.	815.00	25 days
	May	554.20	17 days

We have completed a few of the items; however, records here in Lancaster do not give us the answers to the questions, which we are asking you to complete before signing and mailing to the Commission in Carson City. This is probably another case where we were unaware of any disability until we received the C-2 form. If that is so, we suggest you answer the questions accordingly.

Mr. J. B. Taylor

August 5, 1959

Incidentally, our files disclose the fact that the Commission was informed by John S. Murphy that all men were hired in California for work in Nevada.

If the number of lung claims keep on increasing as they have in the past several weeks, most of your time will be spent on asbestosis and pneumoconiosis claims. Seriously though, it is important that we cooperate with our insurance carriers and give them all the help we can for two reasons. First, these claims usually result in total permanent disability which means maximum compensation awards of which we will pay our proportionate share. Second, there is some doubt that our type of work could cause asbestosis. However, since one employee collected under the California Occupational Disease Law, we have had quite a few asbestosis claims. Our only concern, where an award has been made, is to be sure we are not charged with more than our proportionate share.

If you have a duplicating machine, will you send us a copy of the C-2 form submitted.

Very truly yours,

The attached letter from Sister M. Philippa is the first inkling we had of Robert Zini's illness and death. Also enclosed are the daily expenses incurred amounting to $2,754.23 while confined in St. Mary's Hospital in San Francisco. The confinement lasted from May 8 to July 27, 1958.

We have no way of telling, but this appears to be another asbestosis case. If so, Armstrong's share of the expense, if any, should be relatively small.

He only worked seven weeks in 1954, forty-four weeks in 1955, and six weeks in 1957. His last day of work for Armstrong was November 22, 1957.

Dear John:

Subject: James R. Shephard
Asbestosis Claim

When the settlement figure of over $5,000 is compared to the length of time the decedent worked for your company, the out-of-court settlement seems extravagant. When compared to the potential, however, it appears that a reasonable settlement was effected.

With regard to the last employer being held responsible for the full amount of the award, the Commerce Clearing House Information Service on Workmen's Compensation, to which we subscribe, lists several cases in which this was held to be the case. This is not peculiar to Massachusetts since we know of several other states where the last employer was also held to be solely responsible for the award. In some of the states, however, an apportionment proceeding is permitted whereby former employers and/or their insurance carriers are held responsible for a part of the total award, which part is usually based upon the length of time the claimant was employed and in actual contact with the condition which caused the disease. We do not know if an apportionment proceeding is permitted in Massachusetts.

If additional precautions could be taken at the time of employment, your workmen's compensation costs and future rates would certainly show the favorable results of these measures.

Sincerely yours,

Wallace B. Hofforth

Gentlemen:

The question I am about to ask you will probably involve getting records of this man's employment from your Eastern office.

We have an Application filed before the Industrial Accident Commission by Mr. Harding alleging over the years he has contracted asbestosis and is seeking compensation benefits therefor.

I do not have the exact dates of employment, but it will undoubtedly involve the previous carrier, The Standard Accident Insurance Company also.

To the best of our ability to learn, he was employed by you during 1953, 54, and 55, and his present address is 1407 Howe Avenue, Sacramento 5.

We do not have his social security number, but his date of birth is given as February 25th, 1896.

Would you kindly set in motion the machinery to secure for us the exact dates of his working for you and his exact <sup>year</sup> weekly earnings, so that we will know what policy year to charge this loss to.

I am sending this letter to you in duplicate in the event you wish to refer it to the Standard Accident Insurance Company. Thank you.

December 27, 1961

To J. E. Zeller, Lancaster
From E. H. Schulz, Milwaukee
Subject Occupational Diseases

It has come to my attention that there are several pending cases of asbestos workers claiming they have contracted either fibrosis or asbestosis from the handling of fiberglass materials and magnesia and high temperature insulating materials. One or two of our contractors have been singled out by the Wisconsin Workmen's Compensation Liability Investigators to prepare some sort of statement as to the occupational hazards involved in the asbestos workers trade. I personally know of one case in which a pipe coverer was awarded a settlement of $16,000.00 and his disease classified as asbestosis.

The Southern Wisconsin Asbestos Contractors Association has discussed this problem at one or two of their recent meetings and may go on record to suggest that when ever a new pipe coverer is hired that he receive an exam for any respiratory congestion present. In as much as the contractor is liable for such diseases, our association may go on record to this affect.

Have you at any time heard of any such cases pending or settled in any of the other offices of our company. I would be interested in hearing from you at your earliest convenience as to whether this has occurred in other areas and what the disposition of the cases were.

Dear John:

Subject: Occupational Diseases

This letter is in answer to the request of your Mr. E. H. Schulz, Milwaukee, for information on occupational disease claims, particularly asbestosis and those akin to it.

We have a rather imposing list of cases which we have shown below. This will serve to indicate the importance of this type of claim in the overall workmen's compensation insurance cost picture. Unfortunately, the disposition of a case is not always known to us. Also, the total cost is not always available. Where cost information was available we listed, whether it represented the total cost of the claim or whether it only represented the proportionate share which our insurer paid in our behalf. Where no costs are listed, it may be because they were not known or the claim was dismissed against us.

Occupational Illness Claims
Asbestos Workers

At the recent meeting of the Board of Directors of the Associated Insulation Contractors of the Western States a lengthy discussion was held relative to the increasing number of claims from asbestos workers with respect to respiratory illness and lung cancer, supposedly the result of breathing asbestos dust and glass fiber dust.

We have had a number of these claims on the West Coast in the past year, particularly in the Pacific Northwest but now spreading to California. The result could be a heavy increase in our insurance cost.

The Association has made this a major item of business at our annual meeting this summer. Can you give me any information as to the experience of our company or Travelers Insurance Company?

Attached is copy of correspondence from R. B. Ross requesting information on our experience as a company with asbestosis claims. Since we recently had a similar request for this information from another area, I assume Travelers has gathered data that would be helpful to Ross.

We would appreciate your passing along this request to Travelers, and since the association meeting is scheduled for this summer, their prompt reply would be appreciated.

"ASBESTOSIS" REPORT TO ALL SWACA MEMBERS:

Meeting of committee of SWACA, Local 19, Local 127, and Northern Contractors with Wisconsin State Industrial Commission at Madison, Wisconsin on February 20, 1963.

Mr. Knutson - Commissioner Wisconsin State Ind. Commission
W. J. Kilpatrick - Factory Safety
R. Osterm - Safety Director
Don Taylor - Taylor Insulation
Bill Boro - Industrial Insulation
Harry Lumayo - Local 127
Al Leminger - Local 127
William Globig - Local 127
Phil Taylor - Milwaukee Insulation.

No detailed reports or facts or figures were presented but suggest all concerned try to get facts from Insurance Companies, Asbestos Manufacturers and Associations, International Union and Doctors.

In the meantime, where there is asbestos dust present, TYPE A respirators should be worn by the men when cutting blocks, or asbestos pipe covering, or handling asbestos cement. Suggestion made that all employers issue said respirators to all employees, have the men sign for them, and insist that they be used by all employees, including warehouse employees. The State law says the Wisconsin State Industrial Commission has legal responsibility to protect the worker, and the employers must protect workers or be subject to penalty, and the last employer is liable and responsible. However, the worker must use safeguards he is supplied or the worker is liable and would be penalized.

X-Ray exams were discussed and the union will probably raise X-Ray questions and demands to incorporate into the Union Contract agreement. Recommended that everyone get free chest X-Rays at T B Mobil units or union may be able to get free X-Rays under their group insurance plan.

No further meeting was scheduled, and no formal conclusions. Tentative conclusions: Ventilate and/or wear respirators. In case of doubt the Hygiene Dept. of State Board of Health can determine conditions. They will sample, test, inspect conditions, and make a report on findings. There have been 3 or 4 cases of "asbestosis" in the past 13 years and it would be advisable to check man's health before hiring.

Attached you will please find a copy of a letter received from the Southern Wisconsin Asbestos Contractors Association outlining the developments of a short meeting with the Wisconsin State Industrial Commission at Madison, Wisconsin regarding the problem of Asbestosis.

No doubt you are somewhat aware of the problem in that the Asbestos Workers journal in their last issue had quite a lengthy discussion including pictures of preventative measures. I would appreciate receiving any information you have concerning the problem of Asbestosis and if any necessary action should be taken at this time to protect ourselves should any such case arise among our employees. I would appreciate you trying to get all facts concerning the Asbestosis problem from other offices who have experienced any claims for this occupational disease.

Dear Fred:

Subject: Asbestos's

In his note to you of March 5, Ed Scholz of your Milwaukee Office requested a considerable amount of information on asbestosis cases. He was particularly interested in the prevention as well as the outcome of claims. We can supply the information on actual claims against our respective companies, but the [preventive measures to be taken by your company to avoid this type of claim should properly come from Johnny Keller.] To assist John in this respect, we feel we can offer the services of The Acorn Casualty and Surety Company, and we will be happy to make any contacts of this nature that John may desire. This is the second request from Ed Scholz for information on asbestosis and occupational disease claims. The first inquiry was received in December 1961, and our reply was directed to John Keller and was dated January 17, 1962. What we propose to do now is to bring the previous reply up to date. We have seven more cases to add to the list. Unfortunately, as we mentioned before, the disposition of a case is not always known to us. Where there were any cost figures available, we listed them, but in some instances we did not know if the cost represented the total cost of the claim or whether it only represented the proportionate share which our insurer paid in our behalf. Where no costs are listed, it may be because they were not known or the claim was dismissed against us.

This is a rather imposing list of cases and will serve to indicate the importance of this type of claim in the over-all worker's compensation insurance cost picture. Claims of this nature are on the rise, especially in certain areas. California is one of these areas. Some states hold the last employer solely responsible for occupational disease claims. Others allow for apportionment of the award among all previous employers where the employee was subjected to conditions which led to his disability. There isn't much you can do to defend successfully a valid occupational disease claim. Obviously prevention is the key.

Please let us know if we can be of further assistance.

REPORT OF SPECIAL MEDICAL EXAMINATION

Purpose of the Examination:

To determine Mr. Goans' present physical condition with special reference to his reported pneumoconiosis attributed to exposure while doing insulation work over a period of 43 or 44 years.

The patient states that he has worked as an insulator since a young man, less than 18 years of age, during the period of World War I. He says that over these years he has used many different kinds of insulating materials particular asbestos and corrugated paper during early years and during the last four years or so has been concerned mainly with fiberglass insulation. He says that he has worked in all kinds of construction including ships and public buildings. Usually the work has involved the insulation of pipes and boilers rather than walls. Frequently the work involved insulation of both hot and cold air duct lines. He says that frequently there was dust, and sometimes he was required to work in relatively closed poorly ventilated spaces.

He considered himself to be well and had no complaints until recently. He says that about three or four years ago his union made arrangements to have members take x-rays once a year at the Kaiser Hospital in Oakland, California. He believes that his first x-ray was made about three years ago and that he had never had an x-ray of the chest made before. He was told at that time that there was evidence of some dust in his lungs, at first only "on the bottom of the lungs" but in more recent years that this was worsening and that it involved not only "the bottom" but also "the top of the lungs". When informed that there was progressive disease he went to see a physician in San Francisco, Doctor Walter Kolman (3490 - 20th Street). Doctor Kolman confirmed the diagnosis and advised Mr. Goans to discontinue his work and to apply for disability benefits. The patient states that he has been eager to continue working if possible until the usual retirement age of 65 years but, of course, he is not willing to run any risk of serious pulmonary difficulty. He says that it is not possible to escape all exposure to dust in his occupation and that he would not be able to find a job in this industry that does not involve dust exposure.

He says that he had had no significant symptoms during previous years and he recalls an instance of excessive physical activity about 1936 in connection with a deer hunting expedition he was forced to run for a distance of about one and one-half miles and this was done without serious difficulty. He says that he worked at an altitude of about 6,000 feet in the vicinity of Reno about two or three years ago and he does not recall any difficulty breathing at that altitude. Since learning of his x-ray changes he has noted cough and expectoration, especially during the last year or two, shortness of breath also mostly during the past year or two. He says that if he walks slowly for a moderate distance he would not have any shortness of breath but if he attempted to walk rapidly or did some other unusual effort that he would become short of breath and stop. He has no chest pain on such occasions. He says that he also has developed a cough in the last two years or so. He coughs up some sputum which is never bloody and apparently is never green or yellow pus. He has not done any work at all the last nine months or so.

Present Symptoms:

He says that his general health and strength would be satisfactory except for his lung difficulty. He does not believe he has lost any weight in the last year although his present weight is about 10 or 15 pounds below his usual weight.

Respiratory Symptoms - He says that he has a mild cough in the morning with expectoration of clear sputum. He has never expectorated blood. He has never had asthmatic symptoms such as wheezing, no chest pain. He has moderately severe shortness of breath on any unusual activity as described previously. He is not particularly prone to develop respiratory infections.

Cardiac Symptoms - He has never had a heart attack. He has no anginal pain, no palpitation, no swelling of the ankles.

Gastro-intestinal-Symptoms - His appetite is satisfactory, no abdominal pain, no constipation or diarrhea, no difficulty swallowing.

Genito-urinary Symptoms - No frequency, no nocturia, no pain, no obstruction to the flow of urine or any other symptom to suggest kidney or bladder disorder.

Eyes - He says that he has a cataract in his right eye. The left eye gives satisfactory vision. His hearing is satisfactory.

No symptoms related to the nose, sinuses, etc.

Neuromuscular, Skeletal, Central Nervous System - No paralysis, no weakness, no bone or joint symptoms, no central nervous system disorders.

Personal Habits:

He smokes 20 to 30 cigarettes a day and has all of his adult life. He drinks regularly. He says that he always has a "shot" before breakfast and sometimes drinks as much as a half a pint a day. He says that he has never become intoxicated and does not go on drinking sprees but drinks these amounts on a regular basis. He has been married twice. His first wife bore him one child but he does not know whether that child is still living. He has been married to his present wife for 33 years. They have had no children. He says that his wife has suffered from colitis. He does not know about the health of his mother and father, having had no communication with them since 1926. They were living in the State of Missouri. He is not sure how many brothers or sisters he has but thinks there were seven or eight in the family. He has not had any contact with them for many years.

Past Medical History:

In 1950 he had an injury which included a fracture of his left heel and was in Sutter Hospital in Sacramento. He does not know whether he had an x-ray of his chest at that time or not. His physician was Doctor Horn. He also sprained his right wrist but this did not require hospitalization. He has never been in a hospital in any other circumstance. He has never been in military service. He has not had any serious childhood diseases. He has never been hospitalized for any other condition. He doesn't believe he has ever had pleurisy, pneumonia, jaundice, rheumatic fever, malaria, syphilis, other accidents or injuries aside from those mentioned, no hay fever, asthma, heart attacks, etc.

THE FOREGOING PORTION OF THIS REPORT WAS DICTATED IN THE PATIENT'S PRESENCE ON OCTOBER 11, 1963.

Physical Examination:

General Appearance - The patient's general appearance is satisfactory. He looks like a well man and he seems to be frank and cooperative. His appearance is consistent with his statement that he is of partial Cherokee Indian extraction and part Anglo Saxon.
Blood Pressure - Abnormal, consistently elevated to a level of 180 to 200 systolic and 90 diastolic.
Pulse - Normal, 64 and regular.
Temperature - Normal, 98.4°.
Eyes - Pupils are round, regular and equal, reflexes to light and accommodation normal. external ocular movements are normal.
Oral Cavity - No significant findings.
Lymph Nodes - None are enlarged or diseased.
Thyroid - Normal. Breasts Normal. Skin Normal, no cyanosis.
Chest Wall - Shape is within normal limits. Respiratory excursion satisfactory. No tenderness.
Lungs - Percussion note normal, breath sounds within normal limits. No wheezes heard. There were a few basal rales rather coarse and symmetrically distributed on both sides, suggesting pulmonary congestion.
Heart - Size indeterminate, rhythm regular, no murmurs or other abnormalities detected. No distention of neck veins in the upright position.
Abdomen - No enlargement of liver, spleen or kidneys. No abnormal masses palpated. No unusual tenderness.

Electrocardiogram:

Auricular Rate 70, Ventricular Rate 70, Rhythm Sinus, T Waves Normal, P-R Interval 0.16, Q-R-S Interval 0.06, S-T Segment Isoelectric, Position Semi-vertical, Electrical Axis Normal.

Blood Serology:

X-ray Examination of the Chest:
Stereoscopic and left lateral projections show a bony thorax within normal limits. The heart shadow is questionably enlarged and the aortic shadow is prominent. Both hemidiaphragms are irregular in contour and hazy in outline. Most impressive is the fine linear densities extending out from both hilar regions into the base of each lung and some less distinct and coarser strands extending into the right apex. There is a blunting of the right cardiophrenic angle but it is unclear whether this is cardiac or pulmonary in origin and most likely it is a distortion of the cardiac outline produced by pleural change.
IMPRESSION: The appearance is that of diffuse rather extensive and moderately severe pulmonary fibrosis such as is seen in cases of asbestosis. The pleural changes are also compatible with this diagnosis.

Tests of Pulmonary Function:
One second forced expiratory volume - 2.2 liters, two seconds 2.6 liters, three seconds 2.9 liters and total 2.9 liters.
Maximal Breathing Capacity - 68 liters per minute.
IMPRESSION: The picture is one of moderate restrictive lung disease with nearly normal air flow rate (175 liters per minute on the spirogram). Such restrictive disease is seen in pulmonary fibrosis, congestive heart failure, etc. The ventilation as measured should be adequate to permit moderate physical activity in so far as such an estimation can be made by these methods.

Discussion and Summary:

This patient has definite elevation of his blood pressure, moderately severe pulmonary fibrosis (presumably asbestosis) and symptoms of reduction in exertion tolerance noted only recently.

On the basis of our x-ray findings and his history of exposure, it seems probable that his pulmonary fibrosis has been present for many years, that it is of occupational origin and due principally if not entirely to exposure to asbestos fibers. His symptoms are described as having been of rather recent origin and I suspect that the cardiac stress of his hypertension may have been the recently added factor which has combined with the pre-existing and probably longstanding pulmonary fibrosis to produce the symptoms.

Since Mr. Goans is so near to his normal retirement age, he is eager to remain employed until the age of 65. It is my opinion that it would not be deleterious to his physical welfare to continue working provided he can be assigned to tasks that do not involve inhalation of pathogenic dusts or fibers in the air.

He should be under continuous medical supervision and if the hypertensive trend continues he should probably receive antihypertensive drugs. In the event that these are markedly effective in relieving his symptoms, it would tend to confirm the belief that the cardiac aspect of his disability was an important one.

Previous x-ray films have not yet been obtained for comparison with current films.

The most reliable method of analyzing his cardiac and hypertensive status would be to admit him to a hospital for a week or two of appropriate treatment designed to control his hypertension and to relieve any pulmonary congestion produced by this condition. However, the existence of pulmonary fibrosis of occupational origin has been satisfactorily established by present studies, in my opinion.

Very truly yours,

H. Corwin Hinshaw, M.D.

Mr. Ivan L. Schaub
Hamm & Dreyfus
1540 San Pablo Avenue
Oakland 12, California

Dear Mr. Schaub:

Subject: Allen Everett
Travelers Claim B-580498

In reply to your letter of June 9th, concerning Industrial Accident Commission Claim 63 OAK 11139, I submit the following information obtained in part from our records, and in part from memory of the four jobs on which Allen Everett worked.

According to the payroll information obtained from our Lancaster home office, Allen Everett worked for a total of 14 days in November and December of 1958 on Contract 271-213, on which Armstrong was providing insulation on ships being built at Bethlehem's San Francisco shipyard.

Inasmuch as he worked only 14 days over a period of four weeks on a job in which we began work in December of 1957 and completed in June of 1960, we can assume that he was assigned to standard pipe covering duties, and would have been called on to install "Magnox" or "Caloria Silicate" or "High Temp" pipe covering, all of which contained small amounts of asbestos. He would unquestionably not have been assigned to the fabrication shop or the yard shop where the materials used, or where a very high amount of cutting of the pipe covering, would indicate that more asbestos fiber would be in the air.

In December of 1959 Allen Everett returned to employment with Armstrong and worked for 8 days on Contract 271-711, in which Armstrong was providing and installing Polystyrene sheet insulation for DuPont at their Astloch, California plant. There would be no asbestos products used at all on the insulation used on this job, and therefore no possibility for contact with asbestos.

In the last part of December, 1959 and the first part of January, 1960 Allen Everett worked part weeks on Contract 271-565 on which Armstrong was providing insulation for piping, ducts and vessels on the Bank of America main building in downtown San Francisco, and providing identical insulations on piping, ducts and vessels for the Department of Finance job, Contract 271-563 in San Francisco.

Mr. Ivan A. Schrab

July 6, 1964.

On both jobs, the insulation was almost exclusively Fiberglas pipe covering and dust wrap, with some amounts of "Fibrocak" pipe covering, a product made from expanded silica, and to the best of my knowledge not containing any asbestos.

Being a short term type of employee, we are confident that Mr. Everitt would have been assigned to the application of Fiberglas dust insulation, which constituted a major part of both of these jobs, it being our practice to apply most of the pipe covering with our permanent type of employee and calling on additional manpower to do the easier type of work, which would include the wrapping of ducts with Fiberglas blankets.

Fiberglas blankets or pipe covering would contain no asbestos at all being entirely glass fiber and phenolic resin binders.

It would therefore appear that during the 38 days that Mr. Everitt was employed by Armstrong, that he would have worked only 14 days on a job in which he could have any exposure to asbestos fibers, those being on the ship contracts.

I hope that this information will be sufficient for your requirements, we will certainly offer any additional help that you feel we may be able to give.

Very truly yours,

Alan L. Stakaly

Subject Asbestos Workers - X-RAYS

Prox five months ago we sent a newspaper clipping concerning a local research project on the subject in conjunction with asbestos workers. This letter is to report a trend that is occurring.

The X-ray machine used for periodic examinations has been installed in the offices of our local fringe payment funds. Although the machine was apparently furnished without charge, a considerable amount has been spent from our Welfare Fund to install the machine, several hundred dollars have been spent for accessories, and there is now talk of continuing the examinations by the Welfare Fund after completion of the research project in the near future.

Although the writer stands alone in our local contractors association, it is my feeling a precedent is being set to overlap work incurred injuries with the normal sickness, accident, and other personal welfare problems.

Perhaps our insurance carriers would be interested in the matter since the trend will apparently continue with the indirectly sponsored research projects and case histories entering into future claims against Armstrong.

6. Samples. To assist you in the promotion and sale of the products covered hereby, we will furnish without cost to you, a reasonable quantity of samples.

7. Shipment. The time within which any products ordered by you hereunder shall be shipped to you shall in each case be the time we shall designate in the exercise of a reasonable discretion, giving due regard to our inventories, manufacturing schedules and customer requirements. If in any case you shall, in the exercise of a reasonable discretion, determine that such period will not meet your requirements for such order, you may promptly so notify us and, upon receipt by us of such notice, each of us shall be free from our respective obligations under this agreement as to the quantities of products covered by such order.

8. Packaging. Products to be manufactured and sold by us hereunder shall be packaged by us in such sizes and types of cartons as we may determine. We agree to apply to such cartons such labels as you may furnish for the purpose or authorize us to furnish at your cost.

9. Purchase of Inventory on Termination. If, during the term of this agreement, it is agreed in writing by both of the parties hereto that a special inventory of some or all of the products covered hereby should be maintained by us in order better to serve your needs hereunder, then upon the effective date of any termination of this agreement, from whatever cause, you shall be obligated to purchase forthwith any such inventory, including specially printed cartons, if any, up to a maximum invoice value to be included in any such agreement establishing such inventory.

10. Default. If either party hereto shall fail to perform any of the provisions hereof and such failure shall continue for a period of twenty (20) days after notice thereof given by the other party, or if any proceedings under any state or federal insolvency or bankruptcy law be filed by or against a party, or if either party shall make an assignment for the benefit of creditors, or if a receiver of a party shall be appointed, then and in any such event the other party shall have the right to terminate this agreement by written notice, termination to become effective immediately upon receipt thereof.

11. Force Majeure. Our (Fibreboard's) obligations hereunder will be excused if and to the extent that the failure to perform results from a cause beyond our control. "A cause beyond the control" shall mean unavoidable accident, act of God, fire, flood, strike or other labor interference, riot, war, act of governmental authority, inability to obtain materials or any other cause (whether or not similar to the foregoing) beyond our reasonable control.

12. Special Conditions.

A. Patent Infringement. We warrant and agree that all the products to be manufactured and sold hereunder, and the normal use thereof, are free and clear of infringement of any presently issued valid patent and we will, at our own expense, if notified by you, defend or compromise any and all claims, actions or suits charging such infringement and will save you harmless in case of any such infringement and indemnify you against all losses.

B. Product Warranties. The insulation products sold hereunder are warranted by us to be free from defects in material and workmanship and to conform with your specifications furnished hereunder. We make no other express or implied warranties. Our sole liability hereunder shall be the replacement of the insulation products found to be defective. We will not be liable to you or to any other person for loss or damage directly or indirectly arising from the use of defective products. You are not authorized to make warranties or representations on our behalf and shall make no such warranties or representations.

C. Claims and Adjustments. Every claim on account of defective goods, short count, or any other cause shall be deemed waived unless notice in writing is received by us within ninety (90) days from the date of shipment hereunder from our factory, but in no event later than thirty (30) days from the date of the discovery of the basis for such claim.

D. Fair Labor Standards Act. We shall comply with the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as amended, and orders and regulations promulgated thereunder; and we agree that the furnishing of goods or services, and invoicing, under this agreement, shall be a certification of such compliance with respect to goods and services covered by our invoices.

E. Routing and Title. We reserve the right to route all shipments. Unless otherwise provided herein, or by a supplement hereto, title to any products shipped hereunder, the entire risk of damage to or loss of such products, the risk of delay in transportation and/or delivery, and all other risks of whatsoever kind from whatsoever cause arising, all shall pass to and are assumed by you upon delivery by us to a common carrier or, if you have requested shipment by or delivery to a carrier or vehicle other than a common carrier, upon delivery of such products by us to the carrier or vehicle so designated by you, regardless of the form of bill of lading.

F. Taxes. Any sales tax now in force and any tax, impost, levy, duty or other charge hereafter imposed by any governmental or other authority upon the production, use or sale of any goods ordered hereunder or upon the materials, methods or machines for producing the same, and any increase in cost to us in manufacturing, processing or delivering any goods sold hereunder, resulting directly from government supervision, regulation or control, now or hereafter prescribed by law or in force, and affecting our performance of our obligations hereunder, shall be added to the purchase price as herein noted or any revisions thereof, and shall be paid by you.

G. Returns and Allowances. No merchandise shipped to you by us shall be returned to us unless such return is expressly authorized and requested by us. Any allowances for merchandise returned to us will be subject to a charge of 10% of the invoice price to cover the cost of handling and reconditioning, or to the actual cost of handling and reconditioning when such cost exceeds 10% of such invoice price, and to a charge for any transportation costs incurred by us on the original shipment and/or the return, unless such return is duly authorized by us and is necessitated by a cause for which we are properly chargeable.

13. Notices. Notices hereunder shall be sufficiently given if personally delivered or if deposited in the mail in a stamped envelope properly addressed:

If to you -

Armstrong Contracting & Supply Corporation
120 North Lime Street
Lancaster, Pennsylvania 17604

If to us -

Fibreboard Paper Products Corporation
475 Brannan Street
San Francisco, California 94107

or to such other address as either of us shall hereafter designate by written notice to the other.

14. Non-Assignability. This agreement shall not be assignable by either party without the prior written consent of the other, except in connection with a merger, consolidation or other corporate reorganization of a party (including for purposes hereof the sale of assets of the industrial insulation division of a party); provided that, in the event of any such corporate reorganization, either party shall have the right at its option by written notice to the other to terminate this agreement, effective upon the completion of such corporate reorganization.

15. Modifications. This agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all oral or written agreements, orders, understandings, stipulations or negotiations with respect hereto. The terms and conditions hereof cannot be varied, altered, modified, or abandoned, in whole or in part, except by an agreement in writing signed by the parties hereto. No waiver of any of the terms or conditions hereof, or any modification of any of such terms or conditions duly consented to by us shall have the effect of waiving or modifying any of the other terms or conditions hereof.

If this letter correctly sets forth the terms of our agreement, please so indicate by endorsing the carbon copy of this letter in the space provided and returning the same to us.

Very truly yours,

INDUSTRIAL PRODUCTS

DEC 21 1964

Dear Don:

Subject: Agreement

It gives me great pleasure to return herewith the original copy of your December 11, 1964, agreement properly signed and executed by Mr. J. W. Liddell, President, Armstrong Contracting and Supply Corporation. We appreciate your cooperation in making the requested modifications to your proposed agreement and, therefore, take no exception to the final agreement as submitted.

There are two minor points which, in reviewing Exhibit B of the agreement, we feel should be stated in writing at this time for our mutual understanding. The present index for Exhibit B cites pages 1 through 6 and page 10. This is consistent with Exhibit B. However, we do feel it important to point out at this time for others who may require reference to the agreement that there are no pages 7, 8, and 9 to Exhibit B. The second point requiring clarification is that on page 3 of Exhibit B it is indicated that only carload shipments are available in areas B and C, as defined by the agreement. However, on page 6 of Exhibit B you show the discounts applicable for LCL shipments into Area B. Confirming our telephone conversation on this matter, our published material will not show the discounts since it is your request that shipments into Area B be on a carload basis only unless special arrangements have been made between our branch or district offices in Area B with Pabco concerning each particular LCL shipment desired. In the event you agree on a specific situation to allow an LCL shipment into Area B, we will assume, unless advised to the contrary, that the discounts shown on page 6 will apply.

Please find enclosed herewith a sample of an Armstrong IX Insulation rebrand label. The location of the requested letter P in the lower lefthand corner can be adjusted slightly to meet your dimensional criteria. The length and width of the label need not be identical to the sample enclosed. It may be slightly smaller or larger, as required, to cover the existing printed label on your cartons.

Please find enclosed herewith a sample copy of an AC&S purchase order. You will note that you received a #2 copy marked Vendor. Please note the word "SAMPLE" written across this order as the order is not to be filled, but is merely enclosed for an aid to your administrative personnel in establishing the procedures to be used in dealing with our branch, district, and home offices.

All invoices issued by Pabco in conjunction with orders placed by our branch offices are to be prepared in triplicate, two priced and one unpriced copy. These three invoices are to be sent to Armstrong Contracting and Supply Corporation, 120 North Line Street, Lancaster, Pennsylvania. This procedure should be adhered to rigidly and applied to all invoices and/or credits relating to the agreement. Payment for all invoices will be made from the Lancaster, Pennsylvania, address and all correspondence regarding statements should be with the Lancaster, Pennsylvania, office rather than with our branch office initiating the purchase order.

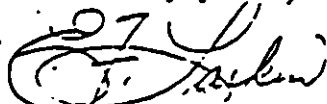

All other applicable papers relating to the purchase order such as acknowledgments, shipment manifests, bills of lading, etc., should be sent by you to the AC&S office originating the purchase order. Any questions or discrepancies that the plant may have on any particular purchase order regarding material description or quantity to be forwarded should be handled through the branch office issuing the purchase order.

In summarizing, the best guide that can be established is to determine whether or not pricing information is involved. If pricing is involved, then all correspondence or discussions of this nature should be conducted with the Purchasing Department in Lancaster, Pennsylvania. If no pricing information is involved in any way whatsoever, then communications may be directed to the particular AC&S field office involved. At no time should any special pricing or discussion of the amount of the functional discount be discussed directly with our field offices.

We would appreciate your assistance in disseminating the above requested procedure to the necessary personnel in your organization who will be working with our account. May I again thank you for your cooperation as we work together in establishing this agreement. It is our present intent to have the necessary information in the hands of our field personnel by December 23, 1964, at which time we both can begin to reap the benefits of this agreement.

In closing, we extend to you, your associates, and family our best wishes for a Merry Christmas and a healthy and prosperous New Year.

Sincerely yours,

E. F. Larkin, Manager
Purchasing Department
